U. N. Columns Are Near Manchuria's Yalu River Boundary

New Reports Of Atrocities To Prisoners Made

Report U.S. Marine Corps Planes Fired On By Chinese Reds

By IRVING R. LEVINE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

SEOUL, Oct. 24.—U. S. Marine Corps planes were reported to have been fired on from Red China's side of the Manchurian-Korean border today as they flew over Korea's northern areas on scouting missions for advancing Allied troops.

Reports of the frontier incident reached the Allied-held North Korean eastern port of Wonsan Tuesday night, but were not yet officially confirmed.

Near Yalu River

United Nations columns were within a day's march of Chinese Manchuria's Yalu river boundary as South Korean troops reported finding the bodies of another 38 their North Korean captors.

Discovery of the new atrocity was reported by the ROK (Republic of Korea) Eighth Division which said the bodies were found at Hwasong in northwest Korea and that three American survivors were rescued in the town.

This raised to 212 the number of captive American soldiers listed within three days as slain by Communist forces fleeing toward the Yalu river which marks the boundary between Korea and Red China's Manchuria.

May Be Duplications

It was considered possible that some of the reports of murdered American war prisoners may have duplicated each other and that the number of victims found may not be as large as the listed total.

On Monday, the ROK Sixth Division reported discovery of the bodies of 38 American prisoners and the rescue of three survivors at Kwangson. The same numbers of slain Americans and survivors were reported Tuesday by the ROK Eighth Division to have been found at Hwasong.

American officers were checking all such reports received from South Korean units in the van of the swift Allied push toward the Manchurian frontier.

By Tuesday morning, UN spearheads, racing north in the hope of rescuing an estimated 1,500 remaining Red-captured Americans, had reached within 38 miles south of the winding Yalu border.

At that time, the most advanced Allied force was the ROK First Division which had thrust to a point three miles below the northwest Korean town of Chori-dong, 35 miles south of the Manchurian frontier.

A South Korean Cavalry Regiment was reported four miles south of the eastern coastal town of Iwon, 75 miles below the Manchurian border.

Officers of ROK units spearheading the Allied drive to end the war reported to U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters:

"We will not stop until we bathe"

PA NEWS & OBSERVES

Mrs. Joseph DeCarbo, of 1315 Wilmington avenue, has discovered a June rose blooming late in October in her back yard rose arbor.

Following the incident of Sunday at the cavern at Harlansburg, it appears to be the general consensus of opinion that it would be the best plan to have the entrance to the cave barred and prevent adventurous persons from making excursions into the cavern. Someone may get lost in the cave without the knowledge of anyone on the outside, with disastrous results.

Report Two U.S. Planes Are Fired On By Chinese Reds

By LEE FERRERO
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WONSAN, North Korea, Oct. 24.—The pilots of two U. S. Marine Corps planes said tonight their aircraft were fired upon today by batteries on the Chinese Communist side of the Yalu river border as they flew over North Korea.

The Marine flyers—Lt. Col. Paul J. Fontana of Carson City, Nev., and Maj. Samuel Richards of Bates, Ark.—reported that "they opened up on us pretty heavily but not very close."

The American airmen said they were "just looking over the area" of North Korea just south of the Manchurian boundary when the anti-aircraft guns opened fire from the northern bank of the Yalu.

Both planes were undamaged as Fontana and Richards brought them back to the Wonsan Air Field where the airmen told of the incident.

(In Tokyo, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's offices and U. S. Navy Headquarters said Tuesday night they had not yet received official word that the marine planes had been fired upon from the Chinese side of the border.)

Wednesday Is Donation Day At Almira Home

New Castle citizens should take every opportunity that arises to visit local organizations and see just how each one is operated and managed.

Such an opportunity will be within reach of everyone Wednesday when the Almira Home for women will hold its annual open house and donation day beginning at 10 o'clock.

Visitors Welcome
Mrs. W. Walter Braham, chairman of the event, has announced that visitors will be welcome at any time during the day or evening. Members of the Junior Board of the Home will serve refreshments at the open house. Music during the evening will be furnished by an orchestra composed of Emil Branstetter, piano; Anthony Castor, violin; Elmo Moncrief, guitar; Edward Candiotti, trumpet; Clare Gibson, string bass; and Ray Melcer, accordion. These men are under the auspices of the performance trust fund of the American Federation of Musicians.

Several generous checks have already been received by the Almira Home. Mrs. Lola Harris, superintendent of the Home, states that there are forty-three ladies residing there at the present time from Lawrence, Butler, Mercer and Venango counties.

It is hoped that the people of New Castle and surrounding communities will take advantage of the chance to visit the Almira Home and know that they have participated in the donation day program.

DEPUTY WARDEN DIES

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 24.—(INS)—C. Clarence Rhoads, 65, deputy warden of the state penitentiary at Rockview since 1935, was found dead in bed today by his wife.

Death was attributed to heart ailment, penitentiary officials said. Rhoads, a native of Centre county, was appointed a guard in 1919 and succeeded William J. McFarland as deputy warden in 1935.

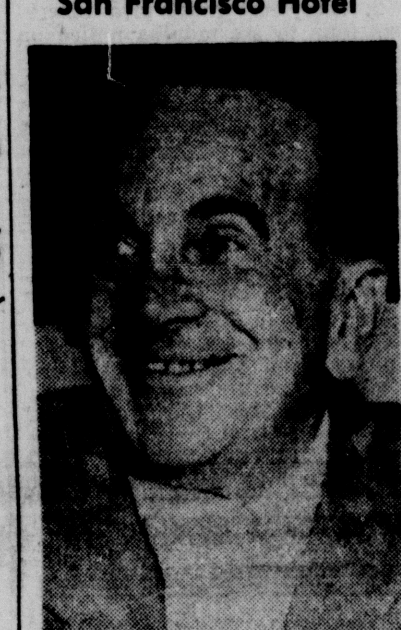

Seek Three Who Tossed Bomb Into Chester Building

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 24.—(INS)—Police today sought three men who fled in a black sedan after tossing a homemade bomb at the Franklin fire company building in Chester. The bomb, hurled from the speeding vehicle last night, exploded in an alley near the firehouse, causing but little damage and no injuries.

Police were unable to give a reason for the bombing which shook windows in buildings more than four blocks away.

Heart Attack Proves Fatal To Al Jolson

Famed Entertainer Dies Suddenly At San Francisco Hotel

AL JOLSON

By HARRY JOHANSEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Al Jolson, who rose from rags to riches with his black-faced "Mammy" singing and thrilled millions for two generations, died suddenly last night in San Francisco.

The renowned 64-year-old trouper succumbed to a heart attack only a month after his return from Korea—the first entertainer to go to the war zone to cheer up American GIs just as he set the precedent for the big stars in World War II.

Dies At 10:45 P. M.

The man who "took a gamble on the new-fangled talkies" and hit the jackpot with "The Jazz Singer," the first successful sound movie, died shortly after physicians were hastily summoned to his side.

The Russian-born stage, screen and radio star—the last of the "red hot mommas," George Jessel and Eddie Cantor—succumbed at 10:45 p. m. PST (1:45 a. m. EST).

He was playing gin rummy with friends in his suite at the Hotel St. Francis where he was staying preparatory to recording a guest appearance for Bing Crosby's weekly broadcast when he was stricken.

Jolson had a premonition that

World Freedom Bell Dedicated In Belin Today

Record Crowd Of 350 Thousand At West Berlin Event

By RICHARD S. WEIL
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—A record crowd of 350,000 west Berliners jammed city hall square today when Gen. Lucius D. Clay dedicated the world freedom bell which rang out its initial peals as a symbol against communism and oppression.

The only incident connected with the colorful crusade for freedom ceremonies was an "invasion" of the British sector by 500 east zone communists attempting to liberate a "free German youth" girl arrested for distributing communist leaflets.

Seventy Five Held

Seventy-five of the communist demonstrators were arrested after stones were thrown at the building where the girl was held. The crowd attending the freedom bell ceremony was twice as large as the huge assemblage which gathered in the same place to hail the ending of the Soviet blockade.

Observers considered that the crowd gave Clay, former United States military governor in Germany, the greatest ovation ever accorded any allied or post-war German figure when he declared a hope that the tolling of the bell may "strike a note of warning to all oppressors."

Continuous Cheers
Among the masses jammed even into side streets were many victims of Soviet concentration

Draft Program Increase Looms

New Program May Release Reservists After Training Work

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—A sharp increase in the draft program was predicted today on the basis of a new defense department policy for releasing reservists as soon as possible.

Defense officials said it may be necessary to draft 1,500,000 men if the armed services are to reach the three-million-man goal set by President Truman.

Defense Secretary Marshall ordered the armed services late yesterday to release reservists as soon as they have reached "maximum training" and as soon as they can be replaced by draftees.

As interpreted by military experts, the phrase "maximum training" means that the reservists including the National Guard will be in service for only seven months to a year.

Only In Case of War

Behind the new policy is a defense department conviction that reservists should not be used extensively for active duty in peacetime, but should be called up only in case of war.

Marshall issued two sharp direc-

Report Soviet Russia Makes New Overture To France

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager, I. N. S.)

PARIS, Oct. 24.—Authoritative sources reported today that Russia has made a direct approach to France with the apparent design of courting friendship with the French and weakening western unity.

International News Service was told this reported overture was made by Soviet Ambassador Alexander Pavlov during a visit to the French Foreign Office last week.

A good deal of mystery surrounds this visit.

The official press spokesman at the foreign office confirmed that Pavlov had conferred with Secretary General Alexandre Parodi. The spokesman, however, claimed that so far as he knew the visit was related only to routine matters.

Renew Pact?

Information gathered from authoritative diplomatic and other sources during several days of investigation indicates otherwise.

According to this information, Pavlov hinted that Russia would like to re-invigorate the Franco-Soviet pact of friendship.

The Russian also is said to have taken advantage of the French split with Washington over the proposed inclusion of German divisions in a planned European army by making it clear that the Soviets share French fears concerning the danger of German rearmament.

Pavlov's visit furthermore created the impression in some French governmental circles that Russia might be prepared to relieve Communist pressure in Indo-China if France were more conciliatory toward the Soviet Union.

Opens Fire On Halloweeners

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 24.—(INS)—Blair county detectives today held 20-year-old Elwood Walter who is accused of firing two blasts from a 12-gauge shotgun and wounding five Halloween pranksters near Salix, Pa.

Kenneth D. Miller, Jr., 14, was detailed in Johnstown hospital with wounds of the upper body. He was the most seriously wounded of five Adams township lads. The others were released after dispensary treatment.

County Detective Joseph Roberts quoted Walter as saying he fired the shots last night after "ticktack"ers pelted his home with corn cobs his warning to desist.

NINE LEFT HOMELESS

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 24.—(INS)—A family of nine was homeless today after a fire destroyed their two-story frame house three miles east of Gettysburg.

Firemen blamed an overheated stove for starting the fire. All the family's furniture and clothing were lost in the blaze. The home was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Little and their seven children.

Truman Gives U. N. Plan For Disarmament

Warns However That Until Its Adoption Nations Must Rearm

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

FLUSHING MEADOW, N. Y., Oct. 24.—President Truman enunciated a new world disarmament plan to the United Nations today but warned that until it is adopted by all powers the free nations "must be prepared to use force" against any aggressor.

The president called for creation of a new UN disarmament commission to "revitalize" international efforts to outlaw atomic and hydrogen bombs and weapons as well as to reduce all conventional arms and armed forces.

The president, who arrived at Flushing Meadow at 11:10 a. m. in a huge motor cavalcade after an overnight train trip from Washington, spoke to a hushed audience of world diplomats and guests in the great hall at Flushing Meadow. The president finished at 11:57 a. m. (EST) and the meeting was promptly adjourned.

Mr. Truman received a standing ovation when he entered the U. N. hall and again when he rose to speak. Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky joined the other 59 chief delegates in the ovation.

When Mr. Truman entered the hall he was ushered into Lie's office and shook hands with Vishinsky and the six other vice presidents of the assembly.

Seeks U. N. Approval

Mr. Truman urgently requested UN approval of the "resolution on united action for peace" to enable the world body to act swiftly and decisively to put out the fire of any new act of aggression anywhere in the world.

The president declared that until all world powers agree on a "fool-proof" plan to control all arms, the free nations must rearm "to make the world secure against aggression."

The chief executive personally voiced his proposals for world

French Retake Garrison Town

SAIGON, Indo-China, Oct. 24.—(INS)—French army forces recaptured the garrison town of Chuk Pui San in northern Indo-China today, hurling back communist-led Viet Minh guerrillas for the first time since the rebels overran a series of seven other frontier posts.

Chuk Pui San, in northeastern Tonking 20 miles northeast of Dien Bien Phu, was recaptured within 24 hours after the Viet Minh units had entered the town.

The French previously had driven out or forced to abandon seven other garrison posts guarding the border of the Viet Nam republic along the frontier with China.

Harassing operations were continued, meanwhile, by the rebels along a 900-mile stretch of Indo-China southward from the Chinese border into Cochinchina.

Westminster Centennial Is Explained

New Wilmington Kiwanians Hear Of College Plans

Steering committee of Westminster college provided the program for the New Wilmington Kiwanis club Monday evening at its regular weekly dinner meeting, with "Bud" Mansell chief speaker.

Mr. Mansell explained the drive, goal, etc., for the Centennial program. He explained that the kick-off in the drive for funds will begin on Nov. 1 and will run through 1952, the 100th anniversary of the college.

Music was provided by three Westminster college students. Sally Funk and Art Jones sang, accompanied on the piano by Nina Belle Packer.

Miss Funk sang "Romance". Mr. Jones sang "When I Have Sung My Song". Together they sang "Love Stole Into My Heart" and "Deep In My Heart".

Guest at the meeting was E. Klinger of the West Middlesex club.

Complete Parade Plans

New members inducted under the direction of E. G. Sharp, chairman of the educational committee were Tom Burke, M. H. Meighan, John Sheppard, Jack Hudson, William Whitney and Elias Kanaris.

Plans for the annual Halloween parade to be held Tuesday night, October 31, have been completed. It was announced.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 7 o'clock at the high school. It will move down Neshannock avenue, Mercer street, Maple street, Market street and will terminate at the school.

It will be made up of residents of the borough and surrounding areas. Cash prizes will be awarded. Cider will be donated by the Wilmington Grange. Other refreshments will be sold by the club.

our sabers in the waters of the Yalu river."

Still Have 25,000

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Tokyo Headquarters spokesman said late Tuesday the North Koreans still may have an organized force of 25,000 troops in the belt of Korean territory adjoining Manchuria.

But he added that the situation is approaching the point where the remaining Communist troops can be described as "a rabble rather than an army."

As the war reached the end of its fourth month, the headquarters spokesman announced that the North Korean armed manpower losses now total 323,000 in killed, wounded or captured.

The Allied columns rolling toward the Manchurian boundary encountered only sporadic and scattered resistance. Eight Army officers declared organized enemy opposition was practically at an end.

An air force spokesman said the UN advance was so rapid that a "bomb line" had been drawn running east to west only 12 miles south of the Manchurian border.

Allied bombers were ordered not to attack anything south of that line, except especially assigned targets.

The spokesman also said that precautions have been taken to make sure that no Allied bombs fall on non-Korean territory. He explained that a "comfortable zone" has been established just below the Manchurian frontier. No bombs are being dropped within that zone.

Military officials in Seoul said Tuesday morning that South Korean spearheads were probably closer to Korea's northernmost border than reports at the time would indicate.

The heart attack was the end for him but he still was chipper enough to joke with the physicians.

Efforts Unavailing

The celebrated actor, once called "the world's greatest entertainer," rallied briefly after two doctors were called, but the efforts of the physicians to save him were unavailing.

After testing that he had visited with Gen. MacArthur for two hours whereas President Truman had talked with the general for only one hour in the president's recent trip to Wake Island, Jolson began to sink rapidly.

As the doctors worked over him the singing star exclaimed:

"Oh, I'm going!"

Those were the last words uttered by the famous voice familiar to millions of showgoers and radio listeners across the world.

Earlier, as he was seized with the heart attack, Jolson had told his card-playing friends:

"Boys, this is it!"

"Coronary Occlusion"

Deputy Coroner James Prideau said Dr. Walter Beck, one of the physicians in attendance, reported that Jolson apparently had suffered a coronary occlusion.

Dr. William Kerr, University of California professor of medicine also was in attendance.

Jolson flew to San Francisco from Hollywood yesterday to record a radio show with Bing Crosby at the Marine Memorial theater. He was accompanied by his friend and associate, Harry Axt.

Jolson recently returned from Korea where he entertained United Nations fighting men.

Plan To Probe Rising Prices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The Senate preparedness subcommittee is prepared today to conduct the intensive investigation of soaring prices recommended by the National Security Resources Board.

A spokesman for the subcommittee said the unit already has held one hearing on the price climb and will continue the probe earlier at the special session of Congress starting November 27 or when the 82nd Congress meets in January.

The subcommittee wants to find out why prices are mounting and how their upward spiraling can be halted.

Symington told a news conference Monday that he is disturbed by the price advance.

The NSRB head said he has been trying in vain to find out why prices are jumping, particularly in cases where no wage increase has been given.

Symington said that there is a good chance the country can get along without drastic wage and price controls if all would pitch in and help hold the price line.

He pointed out that industry profits for the third quarter of this year are running at the highest level in history.

The NSRB chief said that the price situation will be intensely investigated by a congressional committee.

SHOW-COBLINTZ EXCHANGE OF VOWS

Emanuel Evangelical United Brethren church was the scene of an impressive fall wedding when Miss Dolores Show, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Show, Pulaski-Harbor road, became the bride of Harold C. Coblitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coblitz, Boyles avenue, Saturday, October 21.

Tall white candles and vases of mums in various fall shades, intermingled with ferns, graced the altar. Rev. H. H. Grove officiated at the single ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Arthur Duriesser sang "Because," "Sacred Words," and "Oh Promise Me" at the end of the ceremony. "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Gustafson, who played the traditional processional by Lohengrin and recessional by Mendelssohn.

Approaching the altar with her father, the attractive bride carried a white Bible marked with a lavender orchid, surrounded with white baby mums and carnations. Her gown was fashioned of white nylon, featuring a round yoke and long tapered sleeves. Tiny covered buttons extended down the back of the basque bodice. The gracefully gathered skirt, enhanced with a lace bow, terminated in a court train. Her sheer veil of illusion of fingertip length cascaded from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She observed the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Miss Carol Jenkins, as maid of honor, wore an ice blue satin gown with lace trim and matching tiara. She carried a bouquet of bronze mums and pompons tied with a chartreuse ribbon.

Samuel Gunnert served the groom as best man, while Don Lawson and Gomer Montgomery, cousin of the groom, served as ushers.

A congratulatory period followed in the church vestibule, with a reception for 100 guests at the Green room of the YWCA. Aunts of the bride served at the reception, with Mrs. Harry Gere and Mrs. John Jones pouring. Mrs. William Jones of Hopwood, Pa., cut the wedding cake.

The couple have dispensed with a honeymoon until a future date due to the recent death of Mrs. Jenkins, grandmother of the groom. They will be "at home" in their newly furnished apartment, 319 Boyles avenue.

Mrs. Coblitz is employed at the Jameson Memorial hospital. Mr. Coblitz, graduate of the local senior high school, is employed at the Shaw-Perkins company, West Pittsburgh.

CARR-BORZACCHIELLO EXCHANGE OF VOWS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Borzacchiello are honeymooning in Miami, Fla., following their marriage on Saturday, October 21, at the Third United Presbyterian church.

The former Miss Betty Jean Carr is the daughter of Mrs. E. G. Carr of Willow Brook road, and the late Ezra G. Carr, Mr. Borzacchiello is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Borzacchiello of the Butler road.

The young couple pledged their vows at 2 o'clock with Rev. J. Paul Graham performing the impressive double ring ceremony. Fall flowers in varied shades, flanked by lighted candelabra, decorated the church altar for the ceremony.

Mrs. Jacob Jordan, organist, accompanied Mrs. George Streicher as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar by her brother, William A. Carr, the attractive bride was gowned in white lace and satin. Her costume featured a fitted lace bodice with long lace sleeves. Pearls in a floral design at the neckline and tiny buttons down the back were additional accents of the bodice. The full satin skirt ended in a long train. Dainty lace edged her fingertip veil which cascaded from a pearl tiara, and she carried a white Bible topped with white baby orchids.

Her only jewelry was an opal necklace of her mother, which had been brought from India by the bride's brother, Robert E. Carr.

Miss Diana Nocera as maid of honor wore a gown of gold colored satin, styled with a lace yoke and short sleeves. A dainty ruffle enhanced the full skirt just below the waistline. She wore matching mitts and a white lace headress and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white mums.

Bridesmaids for the ceremony included Miss Harriett Caldwell, Mrs. Helen Book and Miss Betty Lou Young. Pink, blue and green satin gowns were worn by the attendants, with lace yokes and short sleeves as fashion notes of the ensembles. Tiny rosebuds caught up the full skirt at the hemline. Each wore matching mitts and white lace headresses, and carried red roses and white mums.

Anthony Borzacchiello served his brother as best man, while Harvey Hoover, Albert Zarilla and Charles Book were ushers.

An evening reception was held at the Slovak hall for 300 guests. Mrs. H. E. Johnson and Mrs. Marie Caldwell cut the cake, while aides were Mrs. Nocera of Ellwood City and Mrs. Carose and her daughters, Carol and Josephine.

Upon their return from a wedding trip the couple will reside at the home of the groom's parents.

Mrs. Borzacchiello, a graduate of the New Castle high school, is employed at the Shenango Pottery.

The groom, a graduate of Princeton high school, is employed at the Youngstown Sheet and Tube at Struthers, and is a barber by trade.

Miss Dorothy Duda, bride-elect of October 28 was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Gloria Yerkovich and Frances Majeski at a local dining room.

Dancing and games were enjoyed and lunch was served buffet style amid a pink and white color scheme.

Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duda of 32 South Beaver street, will be married to John Dzemyan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dzemyan of 27 Ralph avenue, Saturday, October 28, at 10:30 a. m. in St. Michael's church, "open church" custom to be followed.

MEDICAL AUXILIARY TO MEET THURSDAY

Members of the Lawrence County Medical Auxiliary will have their October meeting, Thursday afternoon, October 26, in the New Castle hospital nurses' home.

The session will start at 2 p. m., and president Mrs. Edwin Willmarth will preside.

Seven Bees Meet

Members of the Seven Bees club were received in the home of Mrs. Jennie Compeli of 727 Pearl street.

Members and guests were entertained for the evening by the playing of canasta with high score prizes being captured by Miss Rose Bertucci and Mrs. Gerard Chiuazzini.

At an appropriate time a tasty luncheon was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Miss Dorothy DeMarco.

Special guests for the evening were Miss Rose Bertucci and Miss Dorothy DeMarco. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Call of 735 Pearl street, on November 3.

The club members enjoyed Halloween Party on October 21, at the home of Mrs. Helen Call.

LILLIAN CARANGI SHOWER HONOREE

Miss Lillian Carangi was feted at a shower in her honor held at the home of Miss Mary Jane Ponziani, West Pittsburgh, on a recent date.

The assembling of a bridal scrapbook and watching television were the main diversions of the style amid a pink and white color scheme.

The prospective groom has chosen Miss Rose Marcantino as maid of honor and Miss Babe Carangi, her sister, Miss Carmella Cameroti and Miss Loretta Jean Passaliqua, her cousins, and Mary Jane Ponziani as bridesmaids.

The bride-elect's cousin, John Carangi, as best man. Ushers will be James Caravella, cousin of the groom-to-be, Albert Carangi and Bernard Passaliqua, cousins of the bride-elect, and Anthony Jacobs.

ENGINEER AUXILIARY TO MEET THURSDAY

Members of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will assemble Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Green room of the Y.W.C.A.

Members of the Seven Bees club were received in the home of Mrs. Jennie Compeli of 727 Pearl street.

Members and guests were entertained for the evening by the playing of canasta with high score prizes being captured by Miss Rose Bertucci and Mrs. Gerard Chiuazzini.

CHAMPIONS EXPERIMENT

Congress this year tried a fiscal experiment. It wrapped up all the appropriations required for running the government into a single omnibus bill. The total amount involved was approximately $36,000,000,000.

There was logic behind the idea. It was argued that if Congress put all expenditures into a single package it would have a better grasp of what it was doing than if it voted money piecemeal in 10 or more separate bills. Proponents contended that various claims could be compared to each other—and that the final total could be cut if it proved to be too big.

So the proposal was given a trial. For a time things went well enough, apparently. But then hitches developed. Congress could not get the huge job done before the 1950 fiscal year ran out, on June 30, which caused confusion. In fact, the bill did not pass until August 28. Many representatives were becoming disillusioned and predictions were freely made, late last summer, that the first omnibus appropriations bill would be the last.

Now it appears that this forecast is by no means certain to materialize. Representative Cannon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, is reported to have decided that the innovation was "a great success." He believes the one-package technique made it possible to cut "vast sums" of money from the bill and this could not have happened in former years.

Mr. Cannon thinks it was "particularly fortunate" that Congress was operating under this plan when the Korean War came along. As there was only one bill, he says, it was possible to make a "heavy" cut in non-essential expenditures. He intends to "go ahead with the omnibus measure."

This opinion may not be the last word on the subject. But it is interesting that the experiment pleased the chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

TO SPUR WOMEN TO VOTE

The General Federation of Women's Clubs—one of the most powerful grass roots organizations in the country—is determined to prod its members to the voting booths in November. President of the GFWC is Mrs. Hiram Cole Houghton.

The first step in a campaign to reach the members of 17,000 local clubs is a pamphlet entitled "Americans Must Vote." The brochure recalls that only 31 years ago women were thrown into jail in the struggle for suffrage. Yet today, it continues, many women just don't bother to go to the polls.

Here are some other statements from the pamphlet:

The United States record on the use of the ballot is poor. Only 52 per cent of the potential voters went to the polls in the 1948 presidential election compared with 92 per cent in Italy, 80 per cent in Sweden, 79 per cent in France, and 76 per cent in the United Kingdom—all on the basis of recent elections.

One of the methods being used by the federation is a map to spotlight the percentage of potential voters who use their ballots in each state.

The federation is a voice which American women usually heed. If it stirs up its members with its customary success, the politicians may be in for some surprises on November 7.

THOSE PLOTTING AGGRESSION

In may well be wondered if the men of North Korea who are responsible for the atrocities against prisoners of war will ever be brought to the punishment they well deserve.

Many top Nazis, convicted of crimes against humanity in the last World War, were executed after trials under the American principle that individuals may be held responsible.

It was a new definition of international law, but it held good until many leading Nazis (Adolf Hitler eliminated himself) had paid in part for their heinous crimes.

Senator Claude A. Pepper of Florida expresses the feelings of all friends of humanity when he voices a warning against men who may be plotting aggressions against free peoples.

"Let us remind those who would make aggressive war of the trials when those who had committed crimes against humanity were adjudged guilty and were hanged by the neck in the cold dawn of a dreary day," Senator Pepper said.

EUROPEAN DEFENSE

Military experts in Washington expect West German armed forces to be in uniform early next year despite stubborn French opposition.

Informed opinion is that the Germans will be organized in units similar to the regimental combat teams the United States employed so successfully in World War II and lately in Korea.

Previously the Pentagon wanted to integrate German units of division size into the European defense force but probably will approve the smaller combat-team unit to win French support.

Best estimates are that about 25,000 thoroughly screened Germans, many of them Wehrmacht veterans but none with pronounced Nazi characteristics will be recruited and trained as "shock troops."

The Germans probably will not be permitted to have any officers higher in rank than colonel and the German units will be trained under close supervision of United States officers.

Animals, insists a nature article, have no sense of humor. In other words, the laughing hyena is really just kidding. On second thought, if that's so—doesn't that show a sense of humor?

Peron Gives World New Expression

President Juan Domingo Peron of Argentina has given the world of words a new expression today. And theorists are speculating on how his self-styled "justicialism" in government differs—if at all—from run of the mill dictatorship.

Peron set forth his definition of the Argentine government at ceremonies marking the anniversary of his release from jail as a political prisoner and the start of a "bloodless revolution" which carried him to power.

Could Shoot It Full of Holes

If there were freedom of speech in present-day Argentina, critics of the Peron regime might well be able to shoot his formula full of holes by citing such matters as constant surveillance, mass arrests, suppression of newspapers and confiscation of bank accounts.

But nevertheless, this is how he defines "justicialism"—a word which appears in no standard English or Spanish language dictionary.

"It is a political doctrine pertaining to dispensation of justice embodying the following:

"1.—In political affairs, it denies to the individual any rights which infringe upon the rights of the entire community.

"2.—In economic affairs, it places capital at the service of economy, and economy at the service of general welfare.

"3.—In social affairs, it gives each individual his rights within the social whole."

Nation Socially Just

Peron continued: "It means a nation socially just, economically free and politically sovereign.

"It means a centralized government, an organized state and a free people.

"Justicialism is a new philosophy of life—simple, practical, popular, deeply Argentine and deeply human."

The Argentine chief said that his system opposes both capitalism and communism.

Adolf Hitler's nazism claimed to oppose capitalism and communism also. But he helped himself freely to communist police state methods and sought the aid of German capitalists to create his war machine.

Joseph Stalin's communism opposes capitalism and the bourgeoisie. But those who serve the Kremlin will become capitalists in their own right and what Stalin calls the bourgeoisie never has been subjected to complete description. If it means owning an automobile and radio set, Soviet factories nevertheless are working overtime to overcome shortages that are bawled daily in the Russian press.

Historically True

It is historically true that dictatorships anywhere in the world thrive on slogans, and Peron is to be complimented at least on his invention of an original one.

Whatever its rights or wrongs, its achievements or its failings, there is no doubt that the "man and wife" dictatorship of Peron and his blonde "Evita" set in motion a trend of enormous historic importance for Latin America and the world.

There is no question that for many years, the Latin American states with few exceptions were throwbacks to the feudal system.

Power and wealth were concentrated in the hands of a chosen few; the poor were really poor and incredibly backward conditions in the highly industrialized western hemisphere seemed out of tune with the democratic march of progress to the north.

Peron called his revolution a battle for the common man and announced himself the champion of the "shirtless." These were the equivalent of the "sans-culottes" or without breeches, who made up the backbone of the French revolution.

Perhaps more than the president himself, Eva Peron has capitalized on the power that lies in the hands of the oppressed poor.

Laden with jewels, rare furs and Paris clothes, she spends part of each day dedicating schools, hospitals, nurseries and orphanages. She hands out bundles of cash without a thought that this could be called "buying votes." On the contrary, "justicialism" seems very well to justify whatever helps the people while at the same time solidifies and perpetuates the power of the state.

They Say

PARIS — Former French Premier Georges Bidault: "We no longer can permit England to remain in the council of Europe in order to prevent Europe's integration."

WASHINGTON — Sen. Ralph E. Flanders, Vermont Republican: "The furnishing of technical assistance and material supplies to backward people would be much cheaper than sending in military supplies."

NEW YORK — Nicola Sinevsky, leader in the anti-Soviet Russian underground: "A revolutionary movement is under way in the Soviet Union and it is well-organized throughout Russia and its chances of success are tremendous."

WASHINGTON — Acting Civil Defense Director James J. Wadsworth: "We must... be prepared to defend ourselves against biological and chemical warfare, mass sabotage, or any combination of new weapons or old weapons which an enemy is now capable of delivering against us."

FOLKS OF FAME

Sir Cedric Hardwicke is another veteran of stage and screen. Born in Stourbridge, England, Feb. 19, 1893, he attended the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London.

In 1912 he went on the stage, appearing (after service in World War I) in "Barrett's of Wimpole Street" and other plays, and also made some British films. He came to the United States and Hollywood in 1934, appeared in "Becky Sharp," "Les Miserables," "Hunchback of Notre Dame," etc.

His most recent pictures are "The Cross of Lorraine," "The Keys of the Kingdom," "Picture of Dorian Gray," "Wing and a Prayer," "Sentimental Journey," "Typhoon," etc.

Floyd Gibbons was born at Washington, D. C., July 16, 1887. He began a newspaper career in Minneapolis, moved to Milwaukee, then Chicago. He served as war correspondent in World War I, losing the sight of one eye at Battle of Chateau-Thierry. After the war he joined the Washington bureau of a Chicago newspaper, and then the London correspondent of his paper. He became a popular radio commentator—the fastest talker on the air. He wrote "The Red Knight of Germany," "The Red Napoleon," and other books. His death occurred Sept. 24, 1939.

PEACE PACT

Developments in Korea have convinced Washington observers that the "peace" pact negotiated by Stalin and Chinese Communist Gen. Mao Tse-Tung is finally beginning to show its true form.

The observers believe that Stalin and Mao are working in agreement under which Mao will direct Asiatic operations, leaving Stalin free to move against the democracies in western Europe, if he wishes.

The observers point to the renewed Red drive in Indo-China which has partially wiped out both French and Indo-Chinese forces and forced the remainder to keep together—pinned down for fear of further traps.

As far as Korea is concerned, it is thought that while Mao will not openly intervene in the struggle against the United Nations forces, he will continue to lend every possible form of support behind a screen of neutrality.

COAL TALKS

Don't be too surprised if the coal operators make an unusually amicable gesture in John L. Lewis' direction in the near future.

Under the wage contract signed last March, the miners cannot ask for new negotiations on a pay boost until next spring—unless both parties agree by "mutual consent" to reopen the agreement.

The coal operators just might agree to this in view of the new round of wage boosts sweeping the country and the almost certain fact that Lewis is going to want a share for his miners.

The steel industry agreed to reopen its contract early for new pay talks with Phil Murray's steelworkers and the coal men may follow suit in order to keep peace with Lewis and avoid any threat to profitable, high-volume defense production.

LIMITED SERVICE DRAFT

Selective service officials are considering ways and means of bringing into the military manpower picture young men who can't quite come up to the stringent mental and physical requirements of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Forces have set.

Draft Chief Lewis B. Hershey says he is especially interested in finding a place for these men, probably in non-combat jobs—because he is a handicapped person himself. He has one false eye.

Hershey puts it this way: "It would be very nice if the services could maintain a completely interchangeable force, with every man potentially able to do every job. But when you're building a military force of three million men, you can't do that."

The general says he feels some place should be found for the men who either physically or mentally, are not quite up to snuff, but who are still capable of rendering a real service by relieving a better-equipped man for combat duty.

BUSY DAYS FOR THE LIFEGUARD

Inside Washington

MARCH OF EVENTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Aside from its diplomatic and military aspects, the recent meeting between President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur in the Pacific may turn out to have great political significance.

Political observers—both Democrat and Republican—say Mr. Truman's decision to confer with MacArthur may strengthen Democratic chances in the November elections. The reasons are:

1. The meeting answers repeated GOP criticism that the president has refused to consult adequately with MacArthur about far Eastern problems.

2. MacArthur, though publicly "non-partisan," generally is considered to be a leading Republican, and Mr. Truman's conference with him may help to restore the bi-partisan foreign policy which has been a candidate to sit down with a widely acclaimed public hero because such a move attracts the voters' attention and helps at the polls.

Common Sense Crusade

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

E. B. McCormick, Esq.
 328 E. Walnut Street
 Titusville, Penna.

Dear Sir: You identify yourself as one of millions of Americans who view both major parties with "indignation and disgust." You want to found a third party—Common Sense Party—to throw the rascals out. Like Mercutio you are saying: "A plague o' both your houses."

To your general proposition I say: "Me too, McCormick."

It just happens that the other day this same subject was being batted around a table at the National Press Club bar where I was sitting with several others of my trade. A Fair Deal columnist, whom I greatly admire although our ideas seldom match, had this to say:

What Election Will Prove

"This November election is going to prove that the voters are fed up with the men in power. I mean the leaders of both parties. That's the only way to explain why Taft in Ohio and Lucas in Illinois are both in danger of getting whipped. They couldn't be more opposite in their viewpoints. Taft is an all-out Conservative, and Lucas is an all-out Liberal. But they have one fault in common—they're members of Congress. People are fed up to the eyebrows with Congress."

But when it comes to adding another wing to the two-party system, that's another story. In his very cogent speech at Princeton University, Governor Dewey pointed out that we do not really have two solid national parties. At most, we have two coalitions of the two-party system as it exists in most of the 48 states. These coalitions are strong—in sentiment, in tradition, in manpower, in money. To enlist a third party from the Democrat-Republican total has been the dream of many dreamers. It just never works.

An Alternate Plan

There is, however, an alternate plan which has had some proved success. You could form a league—a Common Sense League—and support or attack men and ideas within the two-party system. This is done every day by the Americans for Democratic Action, the labor unions, the veterans' organizations, various women's groups, as well as by screwball outfits which need not be named.

The mistake often made by organized reformers is to wait till the primary elections are over. This is fatal. Eight times out of ten the primary elections are dominated by the bosses and produce a pair of party hacks. There is then only the choice between Tweedledum and Tweedledee. Myself, I have long favored an idea which originated with H. L. Mencken. It is Mencken's theory that we ought to choose Congressmen the way we choose jurors. It should be a public choice instead of a personal accomplishment to serve in Congress. Law-makers should be picked from the census rosters, empaneled for a session, paid $5 a day and then sent home with thanks. That way, says Mencken, we'd get more honesty, diligence and horse-sense than is usually found on Capitol Hill where virtually every man is panting for reelection and behaving accordingly.

Another Proof of Idea Appeal

Another proof of the wide-spread appeal of your idea—Throw the Rascals Out—is the unkillable Eisenhower boom. In 1948 he was merely a Man on Horseback. To his everlasting credit Ike resisted any temptation to ride into the White House on his war record. He retired to a civilian job and, with great modesty and good taste, kept as far out of politics as the country would permit him. But the country's disgust with its national leaders is the chief reason—and the only good reason—why so many people won't take Ike's no for a final answer.

So, Mr. McCormick, I say—nail your colors to the mast and set sail. You contend that both parties are ruled by special privilege groups. You believe that the minorities at the head of the Democrats and Republicans are not representative of the country. You are for labor unions, but not for the present Labor Bosses who are "drunk with power." You are for prosperous farmers, but not to the extent where it actually takes the income tax of 43 average Americans to pay the subsidy of one potato grower. You show that the Lords of Taxation come up with tax-free bonuses—the President's is $50,000 and every Congressman's is $2500—which no ordinary citizen is allowed. You say that private enterprise is being strangled, and that bureaucracy is getting fatter than the Man Who Came to Dinner.

If millions of Americans feel as you do, you've got yourself a crusade. Good luck and thanks for your letter. Go to it!

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

It was one of those nasty days when you felt as if the whole world was against you.

You had had them, so you know. We had planned a little weekend trip, everything was ready, the car was greased and full of gasoline—so it had to rain cats and dogs and spoil the trip.

When I put on my shoes, one of my laces broke and I didn't have another one.

At breakfast the toast got burned and the cream was sour.

"What a life!" I said to myself, and to prove it was nasty to everybody, one came near me since life, I thought, was so nasty to me.

Then I sat down to read my paper.

And there I saw a picture. A mother, with tears in her eyes, looking at a photograph of her 19-year-old son, who was on the way home to Boston from Korea.

Then I read the story—wondering why the woman should cry when her boy was coming home.

Yes, the boy WAS coming home on a stretcher.

He had been badly wounded at Inchon, and both his legs had to be amputated.

At 19, this kid, a few months ago a sturdy, healthy young athlete, was now crippled for life.

He, himself, had not told his folks anything about the amputation.

Just before he had been put on the ship for home he had written a letter in which he said that he had been wounded, but asked his mother not to worry.

"The best years of my life are ahead of me," said the letter.

Here I was, getting mad at the terrible treatment the world was dealing me, what with broken shoelaces, burned toast and spoiled weekend trip.

But a 19-year-old boy, having gone through the hell of a barbarous war, having lost both of his legs, writing to his mother "the best years of my life are ahead of me!"

I felt like hitting myself over the head and made up my mind to be sweetness and light from now on.

But there was no way of healing the hurts that I had already caused on this day.

There was no way of letting the newspaper boy and the delivery man know that I was sorry I had bawled them out.

There would be a way, of course, by simply apologizing to them the next time I see them.

But you know how people are. We have our pride, haven't we, we fools?

New Members Are Initiated

Senatus Romanus
Has Ceremony At Senior High School

At a recent evening meeting Senatus Romanus, the Latin honorary club at the senior high school, initiated some 19 new members. These are juniors who qualified for membership by attaining an average ranking in the objective tests in Latin given them last spring, that placed them in the upper 10 per cent of their classes in Latin.

Those initiated were as follows: John Ross, John Cobau, Suzanne Blau, Ann Perry, Loretta Stofick, Joan Book, Joan Porter, Evelyn Porter, Kathleen Essinger, Lois Tilton, Marilyn Canon, Anthony Mastrian, Bessie Zazanis, Bruce Billman, Richard Fullerton, Donna Jean Lee, Sherry Plonka, Barbara Campbell and Lawrence Haims. Nancy Lumley, who was out of town attending a student council convention, will be initiated later with certain juniors who will be elected as "conscripted" members of the club.

In Cafeteria
The scene of the ceremonies was the school cafeteria which had been decorated under the chairmanship of Ruth Hughes with non-classical halloween emblems, jack-o'-lanterns, lighted candles and streamers of orange and black. The refreshment table was set buffet style with halloween's traditional cider, doughnuts, apples and popcorn and was most attractive in its arrangement under the chairmanship of Bruce Hemer. All this was effectively blacked out during the initiation proceedings, the sole source of illumination during that time being a few candles and a spotlight focused on each candidate in turn standing before the American flag in a standard.

The senior members who were not assigned other duties sat as a council facing the m. c., Caesar's ghost, the American flag, with the somewhat worried candidates between. The seniors all had been draped in togas by Norma Jones and her assistants, and they were quite impressive with their senatorial stripes and the elevated platform on which they were arranged in a semi-circle.

Candidates Brought In
Ed Lewis, the Consul Primus, master of ceremonies, bade Daniel Nixon, masquerading as a very jaunty Mercury in winged helmet and winged sandals, bring in the candidates. When the class was assembled, he then addressed them with a speech of welcome. Cymbals clashed somewhere in the darkness and a realistic ghost appeared and was ushered in by Mercury to a vacant throne near the m. c., who identified the spectral visitor as Caesar's ghost and announced that his decisions would govern the admission of candidates. Each one was required to repeat from memory the pledge of allegiance to the American flag in Latin and the pledge of loyalty to the club in English. Various senators voiced their complaints against individual candidates for failure to keep the established rules for the period of probation. Later Peter Rosenberger sat on a throne in the basement corridor as Pluto, king of the underworld, and assigned penalties, which were greatly enjoyed by all but the victim. James Deegan was general chairman of the initiation.

The senior members of the club are: Mary Ruth Ball, Bob Borland, John Bowman, Barbara Cowher, Clara Cwynar, James Deegan, Lucy DeVincentis, Joseph Garzewski, Bruce Hemer, Ruth Hughes, Norma Jones, Ed Lewis, Daniel Nixon, Viennabell Pioletti, Virginia Rogers, Peter Rosenberger and Stanley Wrona.

Richard Lee, Ne-Ca-Hi, class of 1950, was present as a guest of honor. During the period of refreshments he asked to be allowed to speak and after some appropriate remarks finished by saying that of the three initiation parties of Senatus Romanus at which he had been present, this was by far the best.

Thoughts for a Modest Man!

The man you see in the illustration above should own a Cadillac car.

His accomplishments entitle him to it. His income is ample to justify the expenditure. And he has wanted a Cadillac for a long, long time. In fact, he has wanted one since a boy.

But he is an extremely modest man, and he feels that if he purchased a Cadillac, some of his friends might think him ostentatious.

For him, and for all people like him, we should like to record a few simple facts.

First, let us say that we recognize modesty as a basic virtue. Indeed, the man who doesn't possess it to the proper degree is both a bore to his friends and a joy to his enemies.

But there is nothing immodest about owning a Cadillac. In fact, there are few more sensible purchases a man can make—if a Cadillac falls within his economic means.

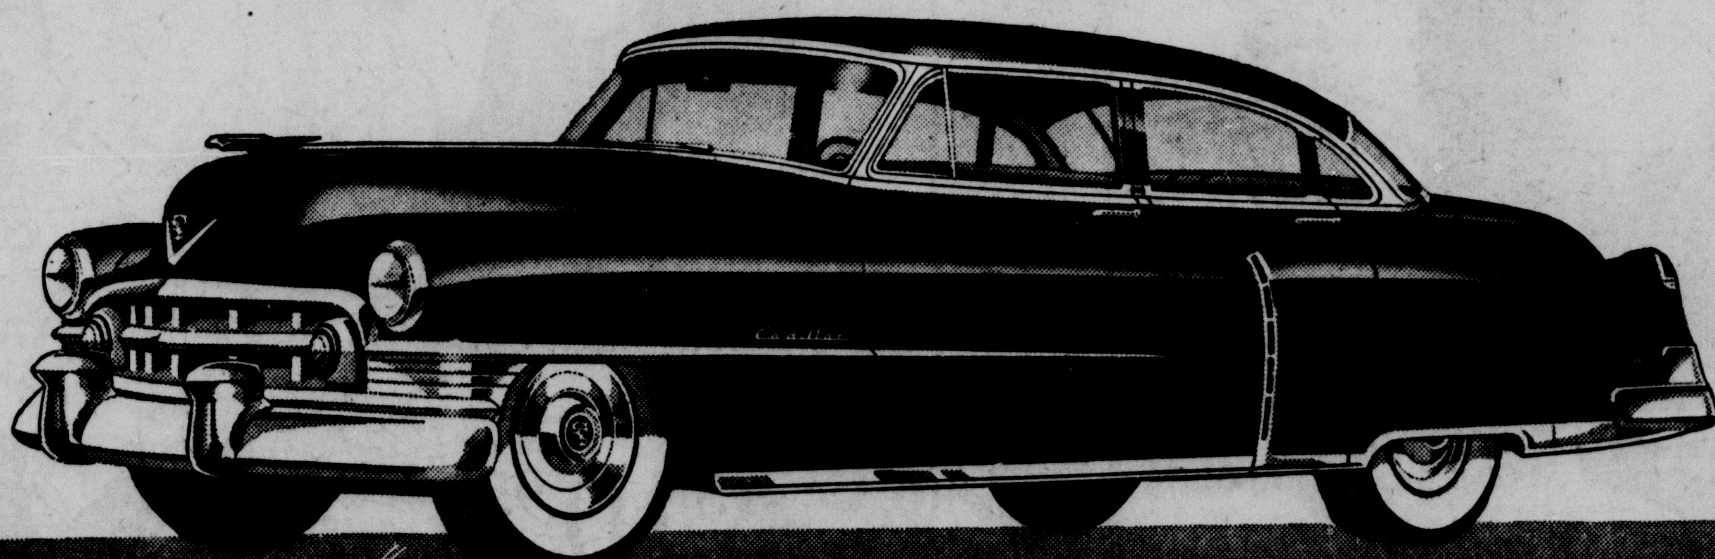

Relatively, a Cadillac isn't even expensive. There are numerous models of several other makes of cars which cost more than the lower-priced Cadillacs.

Furthermore, the great Cadillac engine is so miserly of gasoline that a single tankful will usually suffice for a whole day's drive.

And when it comes to long life and endurance—well, few people drive far enough in a whole lifetime to invalidate this wonderful car.

Surely, no man need hesitate to own the best—when the best is so practical, and within his means.

So if you are entitled to a Cadillac, don't let modesty stand in your way. Modesty ceases to be a virtue when it deprives a man of his just reward.

HOPEWELL WOMEN MEET

The Women's Missionary Society held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jack Daugherty. Fourteen attended and a very interesting program was presented with Mrs. Sheba Rogers in charge. Following her discussion of the topic she called on Miss Grace Anderson and Mrs. Clarence Neal to present something old in connection with the society. Miss Anderson read several short articles published by the local church paper published by Rev. T. E. Thompson during his pastorate. Mrs. Rogers had a scrapbook kept by Mr. Jackson of Pulaski from which she read parts of the account of a home coming in New Bedford held 50 years ago. Roll call was answered by telling of the first missionary meeting attended or an early impression of missionary work.

Following the brief business meeting in charge of the vice-president, Mrs. Arthur Maronde, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

P.T.A. MEETING

The October meeting of the New Bedford P.T.A. was held in the school on Thursday evening with the president, Douglas Tracy, presiding. The meeting started promptly at 8:15 as scheduled. Three reels of film were shown by Clair Brown. The first reel showed the advantages of a consolidated school and also the economy of such a set-up. The film was made by the International Harvester Co. The second film was on Nutrition and the third on Coal.

BRIDGE CLUB

Friday evening Club was entertained by Mrs. John Komar. Two tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. Martha Brown capturing high score award. Special guests included Mrs. Floyd Harry, Mrs. Merrick Ventresco, and Mrs. John Lapin. Each was awarded a dainty guest prize. A sumptuous lunch was served at a seasonable hour.

NEW BEDFORD NOTES

The Hopewell Brotherhood has planned their annual oyster supper for Thursday evening, Nov. 2, at 6:30.

Bill Wallace has been a patient in the South Side hospital since Friday.

Jackie Williams was not seriously injured when his bicycle was struck by a car on Sunday afternoon at the intersection of Oak street and the Sharon road. He received several painful brush burns and has had his heel X-rayed to determine a possible injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hovis and Mary Lou Clintonville were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace.

Mrs. Esther Sagabel who has been confined to the hospital for several weeks has developed virus pneumonia. The doctor stated on Friday that this pneumonia had developed and that her condition was serious.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grunenwald and Joyce, Mary and Bob Grunenwald spent the week end in Columbus with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moorhouse and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shields and David and George Wortman visited the latter's sisters, Miss Sara Wortman and Mrs. W. L. Smith, in Pittsburgh, on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mayme Cox, of Youngstown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Crawford and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace entertained on Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Arrel Bradley and

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Whiting on their anniversaries.

Miss Lois Tracy with her fiancée, Robert Moll, of Detroit, Mich., are spending the week with the former's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tracy.

Mr. and Mrs. Arrel Bradley called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brownlee at Fayette on Sunday evening.

The French language has a greater slang vocabulary than the English.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Devlin and children, Bruce and Linda, of Rochester, N. Y., have arrived to spend two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Devlin, of Croton avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Allen, of Winter avenue.

Mrs. Eli M. Byler, Covert Station road, who has been ill for some time is able to be up and around a little, her friends will be pleased to hear.

Mrs. Rowland Peden of Youngstown road, and granddaughter Cheryl Thompson, have returned from Miami, Florida, after a month's visit with the former's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williams and daughter, Cynthia. The trip was made both ways by plane.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24.—Harry M. Warner, president of the Warner Brothers studio whose great interests are Americanism and movies, called his 2,000-odd employees together recently for an unprecedented meeting.

The studio workers heard their boss tell them that subversives—communists, fascists or any other un-Americans—will get the boot at Warner.

Report Disloyalty
Warner, who was national chairman of the friendship train that toured the nation in the interest of Europe's unfortunate, urged his employees to report any person guilty of disloyalty.

It was the first meeting in movietown history that a studio boss has called a mass meeting to warn personnel of subversive dangers confronting the nation. The assemblage was topped off with a 1940 Warner film clip in which Sidney Blackmer appeared as Teddy Roosevelt and warned the nation against subversive activities and divided allegiance. The warning, made after World War I, read in part:

No Divided Allegiance
"There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American and then seeks to promote isms within our borders is not a true American. We can have room but for one flag—the American flag. We have room for but one language—the language of the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights. And we have room for but one loyalty—and that is loyalty to the American people."

The Teddy Roosevelt sequence from the 10-year-old movie is to be edited onto the Warner newsreel for general distribution throughout the country.

As a further blow at subversives the studio is preparing the sensational "I Posed As a Communist for the FBI" for early shooting. Ruth Roman has been cast as the wife but the title role is as yet unfilled.

When your wife is a movie star you are likely to find a picture of her most any place—including a barber shop at a navy guided missile training center.

Glenn Ford, on location at Point Magu for the filming of Columbia's "The Guided Missile", walked into the base barber shop for a haircut, and the first thing to greet his surprised eyes was a huge, blown-up photograph on the wall mirror of his wife, Eleanor Powell.

The sailor-barber told the actor that Miss Powell was his outfit's favorite pin-up girl. They had chosen her as "Miss Missile" because of the rocket-like perfection of her dancing feet.

EDENBURG

BIRTHDAY GATHERING

Honoring the 12th birthday anniversary of her daughter Janet, Mrs. Robert Hammers entertained at a party in the township building Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Games, music and singing were the evening's diversion of enjoyment and entertainment. Assisting Mrs. Hammers in serving delicious refreshments were Mrs. Richard Black, Mrs. George Primavera, Jr., Mrs. Richard Hammers and Mrs. Ferd Book.

The honor guest received a collection of lovely and useful gifts. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammers and Mrs. Richard Black of New Castle and Marcyne Elaine Biddle of Mahoningtown.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY MEETING

TRIPLETS BORN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Mrs. Rose Evans, who is only 20, has six sons today. Yesterday morning she had but three.

Her husband, Edward Evans, 22, a truck driver, was reported standing up well under the strain of being father of triplets. And the doctor who presided said the newcomers and their mother are doing fine.

The Evans live in a two-room veterans' housing project apartment.

"I admit I was skeptical about this 'no rinse' business, so I really put it to the test! I washed all my bedding—quilts, blankets, even spreads—with No-Rinse Surf. What a difference it made, not having to rinse those heavy things!"

"I kept peeking at the wash on the line—to see what would happen. Well, my blankets dried so fluffy and smelled fresher than if they'd been rinsed. All my clothes were softer and colors came out brighter and clearer than ever before!"

"Seeing is believing, but I still can't get over the way No-Rinse Surf got my husband's shirts so white—without a bit of bleaching or hard rubbing! I washed in half the usual time—and even the ironing seemed to go easier. You bet I'm sold on No-Rinse Surf."

Seventh Ward

Ward Campaign Nearing Close

Community Chest Report Due Friday

Mrs. G. G. Horschler of East Cherry street, chairlady of the Community Chest Campaign of the ward, reports that the cards have all been placed in the district, and much work has been done, but there are a few recalls to be made.

Mrs. Horschler would be glad to know whether some person has been missed during the solicitation, so that they may be called upon.

On Friday, the committee report will be given at the regular meeting at the Castleton hotel, and it is hoped that the workers will be able to complete the campaign in the ward by that time.

Maid Of Honor Gives Bride-elect Party

At the home of Mrs. Dorothy Magusiak of 1002 North Ashland avenue, a party was given during the week end, in honor of Miss Betty Jean Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Evans of 110 S. Seneca avenue.

The affair was given for Miss Evans, a bride-elect, who will be joined in marriage on November 4, to Wayne Yoho, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron W. Yoho of 617 Raymond street, by her intended maid-of-honor, Miss Mary Lou Krasinski.

Games were the diversion of the evening, with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Martha Smith, Miss Bonnie English, and Miss Eleanor Suchy.

A tasty lunch was served on a nicely decorated table, by the hostess, Miss Krasinski, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Magusiak.

The honored guest was the recipient of many personal gifts.

Brownie Troop 52 To Attend Church

Following the session at Mt. Jackson high school, the Brownies Troop 52 will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

Preparations will be made for attending church on Sunday, it being "Go To Church Sunday," for scouts.

Part of the meeting will be taken up with the preparation of Halloween decorations. Miss Helen Weller and Mrs. Wilda Ferree are leaders.

Volunteer Firemen Meeting, Thursday

In their fire hall on Bessemer road, the North Beaver Township Volunteer Fire Department will gather on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, Judd Lamson, president.

It is expected to have the fire extinguishers on hand, ready to be distributed in the district. Some work will be done during the evening, regarding remodeling the building. Lunch will be served at the close by the ladies auxiliary.

Executive Meeting Holy Name, Tonight

Holy Name society will have an executive board meeting, this evening, in the basement of St. Lucy's church, at 7:30 o'clock.

All officers and committee chairmen are expected to attend. Joseph Zumpella, president.

Dr. F. W. Guy Attends Shenango Presbytery

Girl Scouts No. 60 To Meet Wednesday

On Wednesday evening, October 25, at 7:30 o'clock, members of Girl Scout Troop No. 60, will assemble at Mahoning school, with Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. Lucille Ruehle, and Mrs. H. F. Culbertson in charge.

Seventh Ward Notes

Mrs. Frank Rheinhardt, of East Cherry street, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jack Cearfoss, of North Cedar street, have returned from Wampum, where they attended the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, William Lash.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Paden and daughter, Sylvia, of Mt. Jackson, recently visited with Mrs. Paden's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McBride, of Morvin Court, Hamburg, New York.

Mrs. Mary Kersey of Dean block, has returned after concluding a visit with her son, Tommy, of Warren, Ohio.

On Thursday, the Happy Go Lucky club will meet with Mrs. Theresa Ross, of 230 South Cedar street, at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moss, of Chester, Pa., visited over the week end, with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moss, of West Clayton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Liverani, formerly of 315 West Madison avenue, have moved to their newly-built home on Motor street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smith and son, Kenneth, of Sewickley, visited recently with their parents, Mrs. J. M. Fields of Sixth street, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Botham of Matilda avenue.

On Wednesday afternoon, the Penna BO lodge will assemble for their regular meeting in the Green room of Y.W.C.A., at 2:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Louise Ridley, presiding.

Report Of School Being Afire Sends Firemen Racing

City firemen were sent racing to the Lincoln and Garfield school at 3:17 p.m. Monday, when a telephone alarm was received, stating that the school was ablaze.

However, the fire proved to be in an old home across the alley from the school, and firemen breathed a sigh of relief as they pulled up at the scene.

The blaze proved to be in the home of George Gudyk, of 225 Weaver street, across the alley from the school.

The blaze, which started from an overheated furnace caused damage of around $50 to the home, and was quickly brought under control by firemen, five companies responding to the alarm from Box 83.

Deadline Is Set For Some Entries

In State Farm Show

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The State Farm Show Commission today fixed a November 18 deadline for entry of livestock and poultry in the 1951 Pennsylvania Farm Show January 8-12.

State Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst said entries for the 1951 show might break last year's all-time record of 1,600 head of horses, dairy and beef cattle, swine and sheep.

The commission's premium total of $54,476 is the largest on record, Horst said.

"Livestock and poultry bring in about 75 cents of every dollar the average farmer receives in cash income," he pointed out.

"The increasing importance of these agricultural industries to the state's economy, together with our great diversification of farm crops, will combine to make the 1951 farm show a massive educational demonstration of our agricultural enterprise."

Now Is Time For Action Says Gen. Bradley

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(INS)

—Gen. Omar Bradley told the North Atlantic Pact Nations today they must create integrated defense forces "now . . . or we may be forced to improvise them in the face of enemy attack."

The chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs bluntly advised the military chiefs of the pact nations that "now is the time for action."

The military leaders are assembled in Washington to translate their European defense plans into concrete terms of troops and armaments.

Auto Dealers Oppose New Credit Control Provisions

Drastic terms imposed by an amendment to Regulation W cutting installment purchases of automobiles from 21 to 15 months in bringing an unwarranted and unjust hardship upon the average worker, W. C. Bryan, president of the New Castle Automobile Dealers Association declared today in a statement pledging the united effort of over 3,000 new car dealers with membership in the Pennsylvania Automotive Association in demanding that the Federal Reserve Board rescind its harsh order which became effective on October 16.

"Already the uncalled action of the Federal Reserve Board is causing an undue hardship upon millions of low income workers whose livelihood depends upon automobile transportation," Mr. Bryan stated. "These stringent terms will prevent the majority of prospective buyers from acquiring the transportation essential to the national economy and to the national welfare in this critical period."

"The new and stricter credit controls hit hardest the defense plant and low-income essential workers who need transportation most," he contended.

"In addition to imposing this unnecessary hardship on the working man," the official continued, "the amended regulation is also extremely detrimental to the entire automotive industry and the automobile dealer. Not only will it have a serious effect on sales, but if continued will result in unemployment of workers now gainfully employed in garages throughout the country."

Mr. Bryan said the 15 month installment terms came within less than three weeks after Regulation W was issued limiting credit terms to 21 months despite the fact that there was evidence the latter was also causing hardships to workers, although to a lesser degree.

Charging that both Regulation W and the amendment were issued without any conference with representatives of the automotive industry in violation to Section 709 of the National Automobile Dealers Association, Washington D. C., and Claude S. Klugh, of Harrisburg, general manager of the Pennsylvania Automotive Association, and the full membership of both organizations.

He said that dealers are supported in their demand for rescission of the drastic 15-month credit terms by Fred L. Haller, president of the National Automobile Dealers Association, Washington D. C., and Claude S. Klugh, of Harrisburg, general manager of the Pennsylvania Automotive Association, and the full membership of both organizations.

Plans Completed For High School Event Wednesday

Final plans have been completed for the reception honoring the parents of tenth year students at the senior high school on Wednesday evening of this week.

The opportunity will thus be given for these parents to meet all the teachers with whom their sons and daughters are associated in the course of a school day. Members of the administrative staff of the school and of its guidance department will also be in the receiving line.

Light refreshments are to be served to the guests in the school cafeteria.

The affair is under the direction of Miss Dorothy Edmunds, who is in general charge of the guidance program for tenth year students.

State Police Say:

Some motorists seem to be irked by the necessity for stopping for the STOP signs at intersections. While this violation calls for a $5.00 fine, it would be interesting to know how many drivers have paid with their lives for refusal to abide by the injunction to stop. There can be no excuse for accidents at intersections protected by STOP signs.

Small Butler Boy Accidentally Shot

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 24.—(INS)—Three-year-old Roger Phillips Jr., grandson of T. W. Phillips who heads the Phillips Gas and Oil company, shot and killed himself accidentally yesterday in Butler.

Young Roger and his sister, Virginia, 5, were visiting at their grandparents' home when the tragedy occurred.

He found a revolver in an upstairs room while he and his sister were rummaging in a drawer.

With a child's curiosity, he pulled the trigger and wounded himself with a .38-caliber bullet.

The child died later in Mercy hospital in Pittsburgh.

His grandparents said the pistol hadn't been used for 20 years and that they had forgotten it was in the drawer.

Murder-Suicide Blamed On Long Family Dispute

MIFFLINBURG, Pa., Oct. 24.—(INS)—A year long family dispute was blamed today by authorities for the murder and suicide of a Mifflinburg quarry owner and his wife in their home.

Police reported Lee Booney, 49, shot his attractive 42-year-old wife, Grace, last night with a .12 gauge shotgun as she prepared for bed, and then turned the weapon on himself.

Borough Patrolmen Palmer, Hommel and Coroner H. T. Beck, of Lewisburg, reported the family argument dated back more than a year.

The annual toll of street and highway deaths in the United States reaches beyond the 30,000 mark.

What's the Price of a Buick?

Less than most people think

LOOK AT THE Typical Delivered Prices ON 1950 BUICKS

MODEL 46D Buick SPECIAL 6-pass. Sedan with de luxe trim...	$1950.00
MODEL 41D (Illustrated) Buick SPECIAL 6-pass. 4-door Sedan with de luxe trim...	$2034.00
MODEL 56R Buick SUPER 6-pass. 2-door Riviera...	$2192.00
MODEL 72R Buick ROADMASTER 6-pass. 4-door Riviera Sedan...	$2990.20

Optional equipment, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

No fair peeking at the sample prices over on the right till you put yourself to this test:

Look at the handsome honey pictured here—or recall the thousands like it that you've been seeing on the highways—and ask yourself what you think one would cost.

Bear in mind, this is an eight—and a very special eight—with the eager and ever-lively power of a high-compression valve-in-head engine that's a Fireball to boot.

Take stock of its generous expanses of safety plate glass that mean extra visibility—and the sofa-wide comfort of its deep-cushioned seats.

Take our word for it—or check for yourself—it rides like a dream—with coil springs on all four wheels instead of two—with big soft low-pressure tires on Buick's wide rims—and with feather-light handling for all its road-hugging heft.

Remember that such things as air cleaners, oil filters, dual horns, windshield wipers, sun visors and map lights, automatic dome lighting, and a built-in ventilation system all come as part and parcel of every Buick at no extra cost—and likewise that Buick, and Buick alone, offers Dynaflo Drive.*

Then look at the prices and see how they jibe with your idea of what such a car should cost. If you've done any shopping, you'll quickly find out that you can own a Buick at prices that start below what you'd pay for some sixes.

Why not get the exact figures for the body type in the Series that exactly fits your taste and budget—starting now, with a visit to your Buick dealer.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Croton School To Hold Open House On Nov. 9

Open house will be held at Croton school Thursday, Nov. 9, from 7:30 to 9:30. It is announced by principal Arthur H. Walker. At that time residents of the community, parents and friends will have the opportunity of seeing the improvements made in the building during the summer.

Among the improvements was the laying of new floors throughout the building, the complete remodeling of many of the rooms and general improvement of facilities.

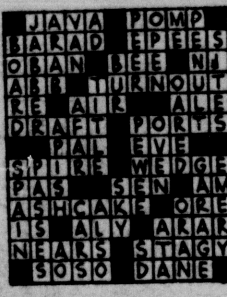

All new tables and chairs have been added to the first grade room on the main floor, together with new fluorescent lights. New tables have also been added to the first grade room in the basement, where green blackboards have been installed to cut down the glare.

The second grade room and the art room have also been equipped with new tables and chairs. The tables in the art room are six and eight sided so that groups of pupils may work together with ease.

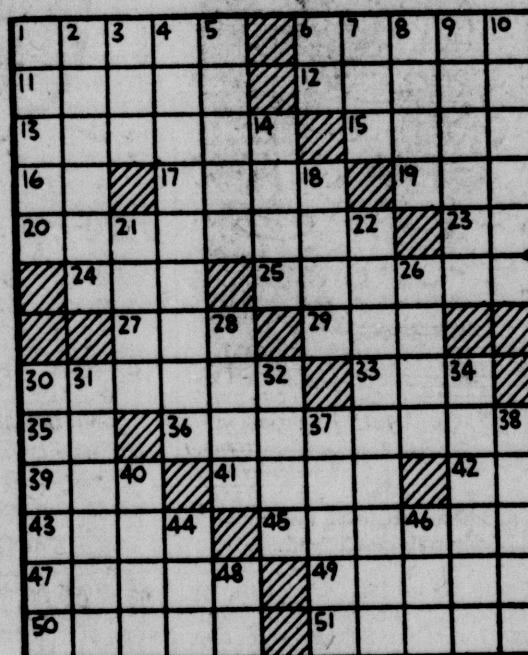

All table tops are masonite. The building has also been completely rewired and almost entirely repainted.

Train Is Derailed Near Buffalo, N.Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 24.—(INS)—The crack Delaware & Lackawanna express train "Phoenix" was derailed at the township of Alden, N. Y., 20 miles from Buffalo, and first reports said one man was injured.

James R. Shaw, 65, of Elmira, a baggage man, was said to have been injured when the baggage car overturned.

Unconfirmed reports said two coaches also overturned. The diesel locomotive was derailed, but did not tip over.

The train had left Buffalo at 10:15 a. m. for New York. Cause of the accident was not immediately determined. The train consisted of eight coaches, a diner and the baggage car.

Three ambulances were dispatched from Buffalo hospitals to the scene of the accident.

Largest lake in Connecticut is 18-mile long Candlewood.

QUAKESHOCKS
NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Eight more earthquakes, originating 2,000 miles southwest of New York—probably near the Mexico-Guatemala border—were recorded during last night and the early hours today at Fordham University.

Several of the quakes were described as "strong."

"Hawaii Mr. Bones"Minstrelsy In Bloom As Rotarians Start Work

Rotarians and their friends came to grips with Thespis Monday night in the North Street school.

The first rehearsal for the minstrel part of Red-Hot and Blue got under way with about 40 singers, male and female in the circle and it all came up good.

Show November 9-10-11
Red, Hot and Blue will be presented in the Cathedral on the nights of November 9-10-11 with the net proceeds going to the charity fund of the club. It is strictly a home town show, both east and west, with Lee Winters putting the guys and gals through the hoops.

In the minstrel circle were industrialists, merchants, professional men and a number of young singers who add freshness and color to the chorus numbers.

There is no "boogie-woogie" in the minstrel part of the show. Instead Mr. Winters has selected a flock of the old time melodies that are a challenge to any barber shop singer, songs that have lived through two wars and a depression and still send you out whistling.

Uncover Talent
In the search for talent for the show there has been uncovered a number of young men and women of New Castle who look and act and sound like professionals. Fact of the matter is they are professionals, one being a member of the Pittsburgh Light Opera during the past summer, and several others are trained singers who sing professionally in addition to their daily tasks.

For a first night rehearsal the show looked good. The songs were learned quickly and the routines outlined by Winters caught on quickly.

If this show isn't a hit there just "aint no justice."

Hon. Louis Graham At First U.P. Church

Men's Club of First United Presbyterian church met at 6:15 p.m. in the church Monday to hear Congressman Louis Graham report on the world situation. The picture he painted was black indeed, yet not hopeless. In answering the question, "What can we do to save democracy and the world?" he emphasized the need for stronger Christian homes with good parental leadership. As a member of the judiciary committee of the House of Representatives, Mr. Graham was able to give first hand information on juvenile delinquency and the Communist trials.

Church Projects
In the business meeting which preceded Mr. Graham's address and which was presided over by John Mikes, Lauri Laurell, chairman of the service committee, reported on the proposed projects for church service. He announced that the painting and working bee would be conducted Thanksgiving week, the 20 and 21 of November. Charles McNickle and M. C. Smith were appointed as chairmen in charge of the project.

Report was made also upon the organization of the cub pack, sponsored by the club, with 70 boys interested in cub pack work and 50 parents attending the first in the series of three Thursday meetings. The club voted to provide refreshments at the conclusion of the third meeting.

A trip to Camp Clearhawk, the church boy scout camp, on Armistice Day was also proposed and plans made to promote this project.

Ralph Cooper of the athletic committee, reported that the Men's Club will sponsor two teams in the church leagues this year.

David Rees led in fellowship singing about the table. He was accompanied at the piano by Wayne Guillery. Next club meeting night is November 28.

Symphony Group Rehearses Tonight

Members of the New Castle Symphony orchestra will rehearse this evening at the Ben Franklin junior high school. The strings will practice at 7:15 o'clock, with the full orchestra scheduled to begin at 8:15. It was announced today by Worrell Jones, president of the Symphony Association.

The members are striving to perfect their program for the first winter performance of November 22.

Rotary Hears District Head

Governor Burns Gives Fine Talk Monday

In a plea for better international understanding, Rotary's main objective, District Governor Harold E. Burns, a member of the New Wilmington Club, urged his fellow Rotarians to be ambassadors of goodwill, and to follow the principles of Rotary International.

Mr. Burns address was one of the finest the club has heard from a district governor in some time, and reflected the sincerity with which the new district governor is going about his job.

Need Understanding
He told of attending a conference of district governors at the International headquarters of Rotary in Chicago, and of sitting down with district governors who came from former enemy countries, showing that there are still men of good will from these nations.

In time of war, it is necessary to build up hatred of the enemy, he pointed out, in order that the war may be successfully prosecuted. It is a matter of national expediency. If we are going to have international goodwill, he stated, we must first have understanding.

Three Methods
He pointed out three ways in which this can be brought about. First, he stated, Rotary members should read the Rotarian, the official magazine of Rotary, which rates third in the field of periodicals published in the country. Second, he advised Rotarians to read everything they can from the United Nations. International Rotary publishes a digest of the U.N. meetings; and third, he urged his hearers to read their own church magazines. They will act as a great counterbalance in one's thinking, he stated.

He said that there is a striking parallel between the program of Rotary and the United Nations Charter, and that, since the organization of the United Nations in 1945, Rotary Clubs throughout the world have been active in the development of an informed public opinion on the objectives of the United Nations in an endeavor to make it an effective instrument for free peoples everywhere.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By FR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

A Source Of Understanding

Bill Watson was being pretty rough on 10-year-old Art, his only son. The boy was being bawled out in no uncertain terms for getting home nearly an hour late. Finally, when Art had been able to get a word in, he said, "Aw, gee, Dad, I know I should have watched the time. But didn't you ever do anything like that?"

After Mr. Watson had cooled off, his son's words came back to him. That evening he talked things over with his wife. "You know," he said, "Artie's got me thinking. I'll bet my dad had a lot harder time with me than I have with Art. Why, I remember —" And for an hour he recalled some of his boyhood difficulties and the way he felt about them.

Today there are many helpful child psychology books. There are newspaper columns such as this one. There are lectures and discussions about parent-child relations. All these are possible sources for developing understanding our children. But reflecting upon one's own childhood days probably tops all the other ways. It's well worth trying. With a little help from wife or husband, digging into long-forgotten memories may assist us in being more understanding of what our youngsters go through in the growing-up process.

South Side Mummers To Parade On October 31

Mummers will march the streets on Tuesday evening, October 31, in the South Side district.

A gala parade has been arranged for the evening, and will be sponsored by the South Side Board of Trade—with 51 merchants of the district to participate.

Starting at 8 o'clock, the mummers will form in four divisions at Pennsylvania avenue. The parade will go down Long avenue to South Mill street and then travel up Mill street to Home street. They will progress down Home street until they reach Moravia street, then go down Moravia street to Long avenue. Mummers will march up Long avenue to the Lincoln Garfield school, where prizes will be distributed to the winners.

A judges stand will be on hand to pick the best halloweeners on parade. The stand will be located at the Shaffers' and Snyder's drug store.

Four Bands
Four bands will participate in the parade, including the New Castle high school band, Ben Franklin and George Washington Junior high school bands and the American Legion band.

It was announced that all vehicles and horses that are to be in the parade are to form their division at Pollock and Long avenue and will be the last division in the parade.

Following the awarding of the many prizes donated by the merchants, dancing will be enjoyed in Joseph's parking lot. A popular orchestra will provide the dance music.

Plans as usual are elaborate for the annual march of the mummers. General chairman, Anthony Nocer, is being assisted by co-chairmen Archie Kay and Joseph Lombardo.

William Ross is the parade marshal and his assistant is Carl Cialella, Jr. Oscar Levine is the prize chairman and Ronald Anderson is the judge chairman.

Maurice Markley is parade chairman and safety chairman is Joseph Medure. A list of committees is to be announced.

State Police In Hunt For Gang

Pre-Halloweeners In Harlansburg Area Are Being Sought

Members of the State Police today were searching for pre-halloweeners who blockaded the Brown road and overturned out-buildings at Harlansburg last night. Apprehension will result in prosecution it was reported.

Bags filled with rocks, and also logs were placed on the Brown road, which runs off Route 108.

"Such acts are an invitation to a motor crash," the State Police said. The same applies to logs.

They said they would have an extra force of patrolmen on the various roads from now until halloweene in an effort to curb malicious mischief.

Early Settlement Of Newspaper Strike Is Not Indicated

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Publishers of three Pittsburgh newspapers said today they do not anticipate an early settlement of the strike which has halted publication at the Sun-Telegraph, Press and Post-Gazette the last 24 days.

Although the striking mailers and publishers have agreed on grievance procedure and a foreman's clause, they still are far apart on an hourly wage increase, working conditions and continuance of the six-day work week.

Allegheny County Commissioner John Kane and Mayor David L. Lawrence have attended meetings with the disputants in an effort to break the deadlock.

Frederick II of Prussia was not given the title of "the Great" until after his death.

HOT, FIERY GAS

Stomach Like a Furnace

A New Castle man said recently that his stomach used to burn like a "gas factory!" That is, when he ate a meal it seemed to turn right into hot gas. He was always bloated, had gas pains daily. But now this man says he is FREE of STOMACH GAS and he says the change is due to taking CERTA-VIN. His meals agree with him.

CERTA-VIN is a new formula. Taken before meals it works with your food, expels the gas, and thus you get the fullest good out of your meals. It contains Ten Great Herbs plus vitamin B and Iron. Besides relieving gas, it also enriches the blood (with iron) and makes stronger nerves (with vitamin B.) Miserable people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering! Get CERTA-VIN all leading Drug Stores of New Castle.

Congregationalists Plan For Recording

On Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, after the prayer service, in the First Congregational church, East Reynolds street, the first recording will be made on the Tape Recorder, recently presented to the church. The recording will be in the form of a brief Welsh service of hymns and prayer.

It is planned to take the recording to the shut-in folks of the church, who will enjoy a service in the language of their tradition. Those assisting in the music of the recording will bring their Gynafan Ganu hymn booklets. The record will be played back to those in attendance.

Both the tin and steel in a tin can are reclaimable.

EXTINGUISH LANTERNS

Several boys who have been putting out lights in red lanterns used on Cascade street improvement work have been rounded up by police and must face Mayor Haven, Saturday morning.

NEW CASTLE'S OLDEST CLEANERS

SAVE 15% CASH AND CARRY

You wouldn't compare a 1935 jalopy with any new car . . .

An up-to-date comparison of all ranges proves—

Your best buy in cooking is an automatic

GAS RANGE

It's not just a matter of style, although today's gas ranges—like today's automobile—are far more beautiful than their predecessors of a few years back. Mechanical improvements in gas ranges are equally as sensational as those in the modern automobile . . . so when you're considering a new range, make certain that your comparison is based on 1950 models—not on the old gas range you're using, or the one your mother had. Here are some facts that will help you judge the merits of modern cooking equipment.

Only with GAS

—can you cook food the way it should be—at the right temperature—because you have hundreds of different heats to choose from. Cooking doesn't take as long with gas, either, and food tastes better!

Better Baking

Cake layers are look-alikes when they come out of the oven of an automatic gas range—baked evenly all the way through, even though baked on different shelves. Pies, casserole dishes,—anything bakes better in your automatic gas oven.

Broiling with GAS

—is a delight. No smoke gets into the kitchen. The gas flame cuts it all up.

Compare Costs

—and you'll find a whale of a difference! You can own a new automatic gas range for from $30 to $100 less than others. You can have it set up cheaper . . . you can cook on it for less. You'll have no expensive burners to replace, for gas burners don't wear out.

Really Clean!

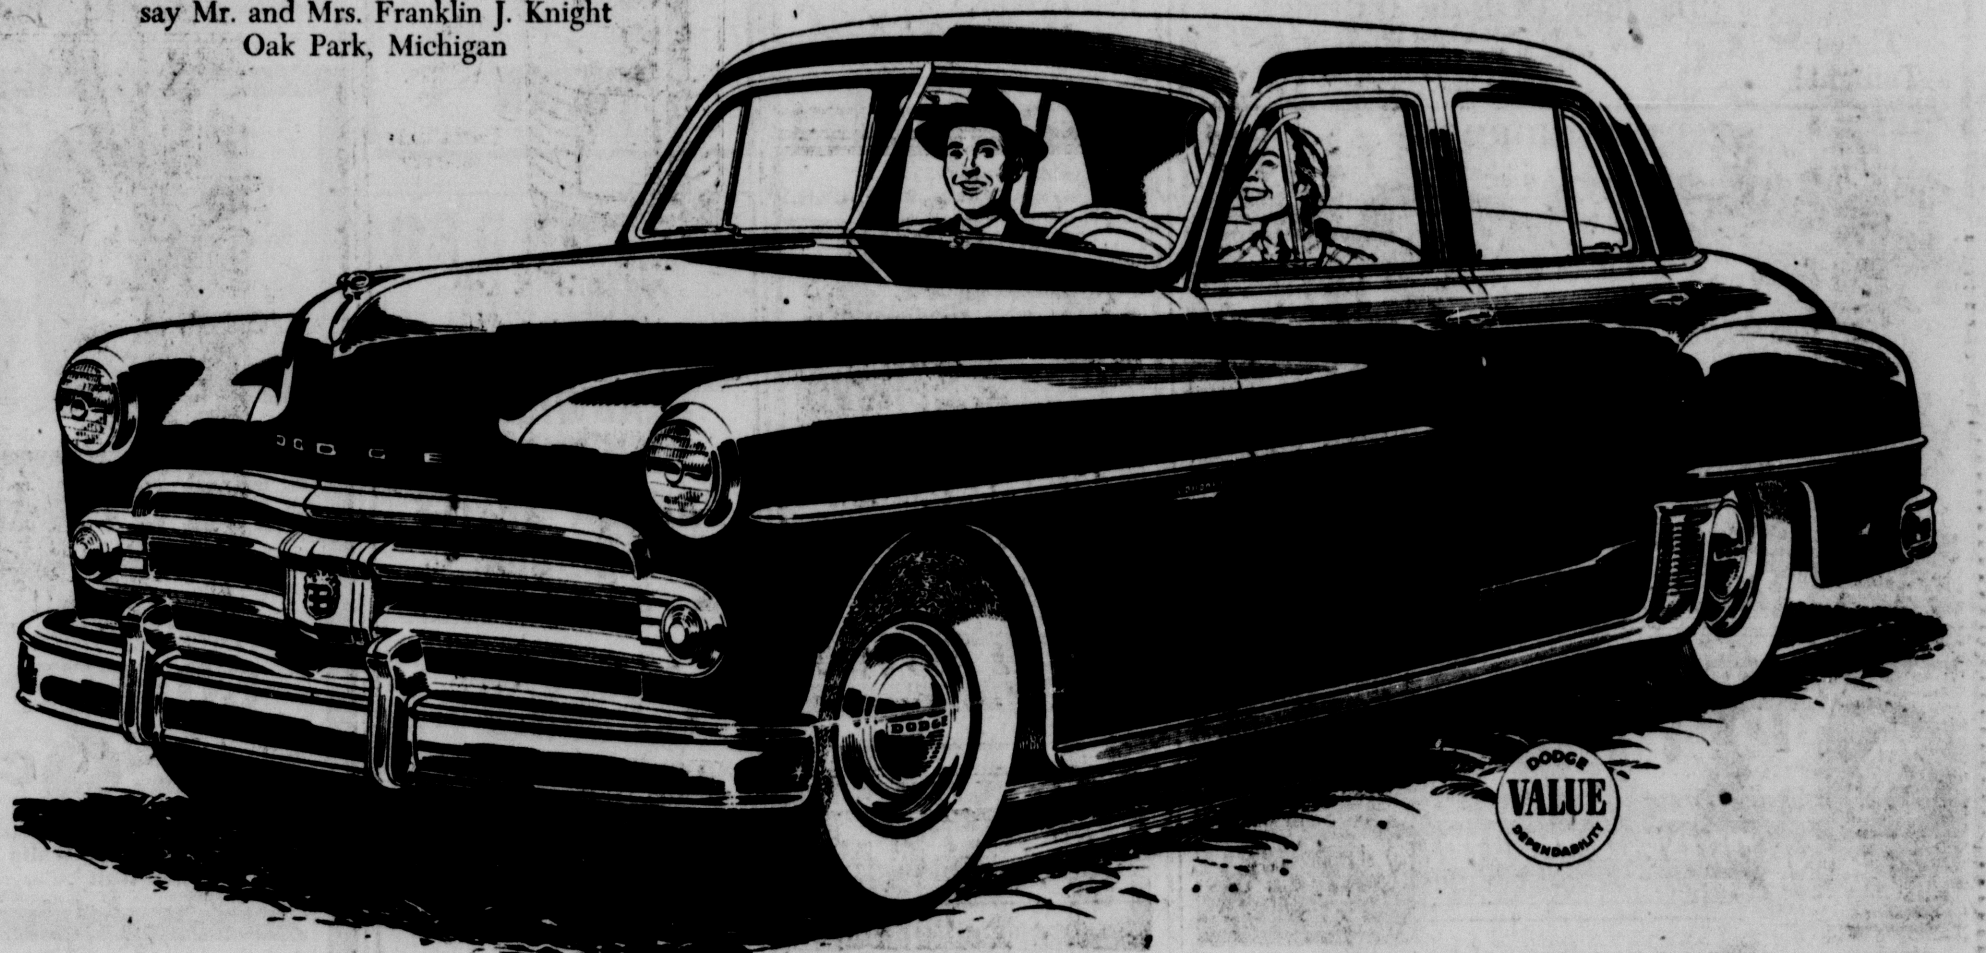

The longer you have your automatic gas range, the more you'll like it. When it comes time to clean it—you'll be doubly thankful. Just lift burners and drip pans out, wash them, put them in again. It's that simple.

No blackened pans

Blackened pans went out years ago! Now pans stay clean with gas that's properly adjusted. You know that when you broil food with gas, it's clean!

IMAGINE! IN JUST 5 MINUTES TIME WE SAVED $1,000!

Oak Park, Michigan

Come in . . . see why you could pay $1,000 more and still not get all the extra room, ease of handling and famous dependability of Dodge!

WHAT BETTER way to spend 5 minutes than by saving $1,000! Yes, just 5 minutes is all it takes for us to show you why owners say you could pay $1,000 more for a car and still not get all that Dodge gives you!

We'll show you roominess inside—head room, leg room, shoulder room—that cars costing hundreds of dollars more can't match. Yet, this new Dodge is more compact outside.

We'll let you sample handling ease, the start-and-stop smoothness of Fluid Drive that you'll want to make your own "for keeps." No jerks, no jolts, no stalling.

You'll learn about famous Dodge ruggedness and dependability that saves you money year after year.

Before you decide on any car, come in! See how you'll be miles and dollars ahead by buying now. Don't wait, spend 5 minutes with us—save $1,000!

Dancing and singing were on the program, with those participating being: Mrs. Clotilda Ross, Mrs. Marietta Ceci, Mrs. Pasqualina Donofrio, Mrs. Genevieve Micalotti, Mrs. Assunta Sabelli, and Edith Semione.

A delicious lunch was served later on prettily arranged table, the halloween motif predominating. Favors marked each place. Mrs. Elizabeth Cubellis was chairman and Mrs. Mary Rose assisted.

November 6, is the next meeting, hostesses to be: Mrs. Nellie Sansosti, Mrs. Adeline Volpe, and Mrs. Francis DePolis.

GERALDINE GENERAL FETED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Gilda Germani entertained recently at a pre-nuptial shower for Miss Geraldine "Gerry" General, a bride-elect of this week.

Tables of "500" and canasta were the diversion during the early hours, with prizes going to Mrs. Marge Gibson and Miss Laura Isabell.

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Theresa Vascetti, Mrs. Jean Ross, Mrs. Dolores Iozzi, and Mrs. Katie Francis. Fall flowers and a large cake were centerpieces for the prettily arranged table.

Special guests for the event were Mrs. Glenn General, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. Joe Vascetti, mother of the groom-elect.

Miss General, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clem General, Maitland street, will become the bride of James Vascetti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vascetti, Winslow avenue. Wedding vows will be exchanged Thursday morning, October 26, at 9 o'clock in St. Vitus church.

FRANCES ZOMBKE IS SHOWER HONOREE

A surprise personal shower was given in honor of Miss Frances Zombke, at her home, 3 Maple street, recently.

The evening was spent informally and games were played, prizes going to Mrs. Lewis Conn, Mrs. Joseph Teles, Leona Zombke, Mary Louise Pitts, Mrs. Mary Zombke, John Zombke, Jr., Mrs. Walter Iwanek, Josephine Baranski, and Mrs. Esther Perod. The door prize was won by Frances Plonka.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Mary Zombke. The honoree received an array of gifts.

The bride-elect will be married to Oscar L. Tascik, on October 28 at an open church wedding at Madonna church.

FRANCES ZOMBKE LISTS ATTENDANTS

Miss Frances M. Zombke has selected the wedding attendants for her marriage to Oscar L. Tascik on October 28.

Miss Clara L. Zombke will serve her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Joan Simsic, Miss Wilma Tascik, sister of the prospective groom, and Miss Sophie Zombke, sister of the bride-elect.

Mr. Tascik has chosen Paul Beney as best man, while Edward Oravec, Edward Lepick, and Gene Tesci will usher.

Miss Zombke is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Zombke, 3 Maple street, and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. George Tascik, 48 North Richview avenue, Youngstown, Ohio.

Wedding vows will be pledged by the young couple at 9:30 a.m. in the Madonna church.

CURRENT EVENTS CLASS GATHERS

Current Events class met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Woods, 423 Sheridan avenue.

There was a general discussion of timely current events in which all participated. Miss Maude Young and Miss Nora Hough acted as critics.

Miss Carrie Hess of Philadelphia, who is visiting Mrs. Woods, was a special guest. Miss Nell Paland was welcomed as a new member.

The time and place for the next meeting will be announced later.

Truman Gives U.N. Plan For Disarmament

peace before the UN General Assembly, on its fifth anniversary, in one of his most important statements on U. S. foreign policy.

Delegates from Soviet Russia, other world powers, and smaller countries, some of which lie today under the shadow of Communist threats of aggression, were present.

Would Negotiate for Peace
The president declared the U. S. is ready to negotiate for peace with any nation if they act "in good faith." And he pledged that America's rapidly-increasing armed strength will be used "only for the purpose of helping to keep the peace."

Mr. Truman gave the UN this new blueprint for world disarmament:

1. All weapons, both atomic and conventional, must be controlled.
2. The plan must be unanimously adopted by all nations, including Soviet Russia.
3. It must be "fool-proof," with disarmament "based on safeguards which will insure the compliance of all nations," and with provision for continuous and thorough world policing across national boundaries.

The president asserted that settlement of world differences would prepare the way for effective disarmament. He said attainment of the goal "appears distant" today, but declared:

"We must never stop trying."
No Mention of Russia
Mr. Truman made no direct mention of Soviet Russia. But he said that some countries continued to maintain armies so large after the second world war that they posed a constant threat of aggression.

The chief executive declared the Korean invasion pointedly demonstrated there "are some" forces in the world who will resort to outright war if it suits their ends.

The president described his disarmament proposals as being "simple, practical principles" that if accepted and carried out would make "genuine disarmament . . . possible."

The president asserted: "It is true that, even if initial agreement were reached, tremendous difficulties would remain. The task of working out the successive steps would still be a complex one and would take a long time and much effort."

Not Giving Up Hope
"But the fact that this process is so complex and so difficult is no reason for us to give up hope of ultimate success."

"The will of the world for peace is too strong to allow us to give up in this effort. We cannot permit the history of our times to record that we failed by default."

"We must explore every avenue which offers any change of bringing success to the activities of the United Nations in this vital area."

Mr. Truman proposed that the U. N. commissions—one working on control of atomic weapons and the other on control of conventional arms—be brought together so "their work might be revitalized if carried forward in the future through a new and consolidated disarmament commission."

Would Break Deadlock
The president thus sought to break the deadlock in the U. N. on international arms control and halt the world's race toward another catastrophic global war.

In 1946, before Soviet Russia discovered the atomic secret, the U. S. offered to turn its world atomic monopoly over to an international body that would control all raw materials and operations, halt manufacture of the bomb, destroy existing bombs, and turn atomic processes to pursuits of peace.

The U. S. stipulated that the international authority should have the power of constant inspection of atomic sources and policing of manufacture within the borders of all countries.

Soviet Russia blocked the proposal in the U. N., refused the right of internal inspection, and countered with a proposal that the bomb be "outlawed" by "agreement," with the powers of atomic development to be retained by each nation.

The United States contended the Russian counter-proposal would simply have disarmed this country, and permitted Russia to build atomic weapons at will.

Makes Direct Appeal
Before the U. N. General Assembly this morning, the president made his new, direct appeal to all nations, including Soviet Russia, to "give real meaning to the old promise that swords shall be beaten into plowshares, and that the nations shall not learn war any more."

The speech came one week after his San Francisco report on the Pacific conference with Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur in which, he called upon Soviet Russia to prove by "deeds" instead of "words of false propaganda" that the Communists want peace.

CUTEST BABY IN VIENNA

Police headquarters yesterday received a report from R. C. Reher, 104 North Crawford avenue, he had the preceding day rescued an 18-month-old girl named Clark from a water-filled catch basin at East Main and Crawford avenue.

He was driving a car past when he was attracted by a small brother of the Clark girl. He investigated and discovered the girl in the water, the catch-basin being filled with water.

The child would probably have drowned, according to Mr. Reher, had he not happened to drive past when he did.

He told police the water does not drain from the basin and it remains filled from rain to rain.

Mr. Reher said he had reported the condition several times and city employees cleaned the basin but not the drain.

Some months ago E. Gene Schweinsberg, head of the streets department, said he proposed screening all catch-basins. Some of them have been screened.

SPokane—The cigar stand operator in Spokane's city hall reported that someone stole $25 from his stand, 10 feet away from the detective bureau.

THE HEARTS of the judges in a Vienna baby contest were stolen by chubby, 11-month-old Marion Wolff who won the title, "Vienna's Cutest Baby." Held by her mother, Marion reaches for a rag doll, part of the award presented to the cherubic winner.

CUTEST BABY IN VIENNA

Police headquarters yesterday received a report from R. C. Reher, 104 North Crawford avenue, he had the preceding day rescued an 18-month-old girl named Clark from a water-filled catch basin at East Main and Crawford avenue.

He was driving a car past when he was attracted by a small brother of the Clark girl. He investigated and discovered the girl in the water, the catch-basin being filled with water.

The child would probably have drowned, according to Mr. Reher, had he not happened to drive past when he did.

He told police the water does not drain from the basin and it remains filled from rain to rain.

Mr. Reher said he had reported the condition several times and city employees cleaned the basin but not the drain.

Some months ago E. Gene Schweinsberg, head of the streets department, said he proposed screening all catch-basins. Some of them have been screened.

SPokane—The cigar stand operator in Spokane's city hall reported that someone stole $25 from his stand, 10 feet away from the detective bureau.

Not as many women as men in the United States go alone to the movies.

Dodgers May Retain Rickey As General Manager

Club Owners In Conference

Rickey's Status Will Be Made Known

By HOWARD SIGMUND
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 — The cloudy mist that hangs over Brooklyn and casts a somewhat melodramatic shadow over the status of Branch Rickey with the Dodgers, may receive some clarification today.

Stockholders Walter F. O'Malley and Mrs. John L. Smith, widow of the late vice-president of the club, scheduled a news conference at which they may announce purchase of Rickey's 25 per cent interest in the Brooks.

Also of prime interest is the question as to what and where mystery man Rickey is going to do and be next season.

Stockholders Meet

The annual stockholders' confab yesterday failed to produce anything definite in any direction, although El Branch was re-elected to the Board of Directors and did express a desire to remain in Brooklyn.

O'Malley, who is now vice-president, controls 25 per cent of the club. The Smith estate controls another quarter interest. Rickey contracted to sell his 25 per cent for $1,050,000 to William Zeckendorf, a local realty man. The O'Malley-Smith combine had the option of meeting Zeckendorf's bid by Jan. 25 to gain control of the club with the purchase of Rickey's stock.

Would Like To Stay

Sources close to the Brooks indicated that the Mahatma made some offer to the owners whereby he would remain as general manager. One official said Rickey would stay "provided they did not try to clip his wings too much."

Rickey's contract with the Dodgers runs out on Saturday and he told newsmen that O'Malley had not asked him if he would be available.

Rickey admitted that he wouldn't mind staying in Brooklyn. "I've been here eight years and I've had some fun and have really enjoyed myself. It would be difficult for an old fellow like me to dig up old roots and establish new ones elsewhere," he said.

Likes Baseball

He would not go into any possible offers he may have had from other clubs, but Rickey was quick to add:

"I hate to think that if I left the Dodgers there would be no place for me in baseball. He also disclosed a somewhat hidden desire to become a headmaster at a boy's school. "However, I'll be 69 in December and I don't think they would want me at that age," Rickey stated.

The Class B Florida International League club at Fort Lauderdale has been trying to sign 26-year-old Dorothy Kamenshek, Norwood, O., as a first "base-woman."

Harry Little, Penn State's All-American soccer player, covers the hot corner on the Lion baseball team.

Al Tate Highly Recognized As Tower Of Strength To Rugged Illinois Line

Al Tate began at New Castle, what threatens to be a football dynasty.

Al, as a sophomore broke his hand and was out for the greater part of the 1944 season. In 1945 and 1946 he gained recognition as one of the toughest linemen in this area. His official honors include all WPIAL tackle in 1946 and a nomination for all state honors the same year.

Senior At Illinois

The oldest of the five sons, Al, is now a senior at Illinois and has earned football letters as a sophomore and junior.

The 6 ft. 2 in. tackle weighs 210 pounds and plays only on defense for the "fighting Illini."

His performance in the all star game against the Mercer County stars in 1946 drew scout's approvals and paved the way for the Illinois offer.

Tate is a Business Administration major, Phi Kappa Psi fraternity man and is interested in working in Chicago after finishing school. He is undecided about playing pro football.

His jacket bearing the Illinois label attracted one gentleman looking to bring questioning. The team was staying at a Hollywood hotel, before playing UCLA, and Tate quickly informed gentleman Fibber McGee that he was not from Peoria, Ill.

Al is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tate of 102 Lincoln avenue, New Castle.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

HE'S AGING, but he's yet awfully good, yes, sufficiently good to be a partholder of the National Toe and Heel championship for 40 kilometers, which is approximately 25 miles. Of course, Here & There is writing now of Frank Jerry, former Marathon runner, who during recent years, has shifted to walking events. Jerry walked with Johnny Deni, Olympic champion of Pittsburgh, and James Sidun of Duquesne in the event which was staged Sunday at Springfield, O. The winning team, Deni, Sidun and Jerry scored 15 points, the winning team being three hours and 43 minutes. In the event Deni finished third, Sidun fourth and Jerry, eighth. There were 20 walkers from various sections of the United States, and among them was a team of Detroit walkers who held the national championship for the past several years. Another competitor flew by plane from New Foundland to compete, but he dropped out of the gruelling event after nine miles of toe and heeling.

What—a bobcat hereabouts? Yes, says Bill Studebaker, who lives along the Slippery Rock creek in Ramblers Rest vicinity. He reports to Here & There that about a week ago at midnight he was motoring towards New Castle along the highway when he saw a bobcat chasing a coon along the road. At first, he imagined it was a fawn, but when he got closer discovered it to be a bobcat after what Studebaker described as a large raccoon. The headlights of the car scared the bobcat and the coon escaped. There'll be numerous feminine folk in The Arena Thursday night to see how their sisters of athletic ability fare in the tag wrestling exhibition. If it is as exciting, and it probably will be, as the inaugural of girls' wrestling here, they'll be satisfied.

Jack Gerson, well-known East Washington street businessman, had the surprise of his life several days ago while motoring to his summer home at East Brook. Traveling down Painters hill he saw eight fawn.

There are only three non-Pennsylvanians on Penn State's 50-man varsity football squad.

Five other major league clubs were bidding for the Hartford, Conn., collegian. Although he was signed for an undisclosed sum, the Phillies said it was not large enough to class him as a "bonus baby."

There are only three non-Pennsylvanians on Penn State's 50-man varsity football squad.

Owens Explains Browns Defeat

Giants Coach Says "We Put Heat On"

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(INS)—Steve Owen, the round man who coaches the New York Giants, says his team beat the Cleveland Browns a second time by "putting the heat on them."

The Giants, who moved into a tie for first place in the American Division of the National Football League with a 17-to-13 win over the Browns Sunday, did so by stopping Otto Graham.

"Last time we played the Browns," Owen declared yesterday, "we didn't rush Graham, we covered the receivers. Sunday we rushed him and made him relinquish the ball before he was ready to throw it."

"Ray Poole did a great job of rushing Graham. Not even that big Motley could stop Poole."

The Giants, who beat the Browns 6 to 0 on Oct. 1, became the first team in five years to take two decisions from Paul Brown's behemoths.

Ellwood JV's Top Canes 18-0

New Castle high school junior varsity gridders dropped their second consecutive game of the season Monday afternoon at Ellwood City to the Wolverine JV's, 18-0.

The New Castle line played well but Ellwood City gained freely through the air to register the win. Once early in the game the Hurricanes got down to the Ellwood 1-yard line, but failed to push it over.

Pagley almost got loose for a score for New Castle when he ran a kickoff back 30 yards and almost broke into the clear.

New Castle players participating were:

Ends—Taylor, Bower, Tackles—Mezza, Ross, Olney, Belancin.

Guards—Hanna, Melder, Villani, Center—Rowe.

Backs—Cuba, Cubellis, C. Mangino, Ward, Barletto, Petrucci, Pagley.

Shenango-Bessemer Continue Feud

Shenango and Bessemer will continue their Thursday night football series that has run for 20 consecutive years—since 1930.

Bessemer holds a decided 12 to 6 advantage—two games have finished in ties.

Shenango has looked progressively poorer since her first game win over New Bethlehem and Bessemer has been physically and mentally stunned following Saturday night's 59 to 0 track meet. Gagliana and Moore, Bessemer injured, have been confined in the hospital.

The installation of Bessemer in the favorite's role must be necessary because of her record against mutual opponents. Bessemer won from Zelenople and Union and tied Evans City, while Shenango lost to all three.

Eight-County Kayo Rule Is Waived

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—(INS)—State Athletic Commissioner John (Ox) DaGross announced today that he has waived Pennsylvania's compulsory eight-count knockdown rule for the Ray Robinson-Bobo Olson championship fight Thursday night.

The commissioner also said that Robinson, Pennsylvania middleweight king, and Olson will wear six-ounce gloves. The title bout will be a 15-round affair.

Press Box Mutterings

QUITE A TEAM

Bell township brought one of the finest class B teams to Bessemer Saturday night that Lawrence county fans have ever had the privilege of seeing.

Bell backs carried the ball seven times in the first quarter for four touchdowns.

These first quarter dashes totaled 187 yards and averaged almost 28 yards per carry.

Left half Kenny Keller averaged a phenomenal 31 yards per carry. He was stopped in the first quarter for a yard loss and then reeled off runs of 29, 31, 54, 29 and 45 yards.

The Lions brought with them two spotters under 13 years of age who knew the first and last names, the weights and the abilities of every player.

All but two Lion subs played, although the squad totaled only 24 players.

The McKeesport Midgets—a team composed of 12 and 13-year-olds—have racked up their third straight Allegheny county Midget league title.

This team has won 30 consecutive games since it was formed three years ago and has captured the hearts of McKeesport fans. It is coached by two former McKeesport high school and college stars.

Organized football for the kids ought to go over big in Lawrence county if it were properly organized and operated by capable men. There are five or six communities, besides the various sections of New Castle, that ought to be hotbeds for such football.

There are also men in the community that would gladly direct midget teams if they were assured cooperation and proper equipment. It might take a little money to put such a project into operation, but it seems like it ought to be worth some consideration—for next year at least.

Carriek high school defeated Allegheny 38-7 Friday night in the Pittsburgh City League. Latrobe knocked off Sharon 34-0 Saturday afternoon. Cleveland John Adams whipped Cleveland Glendale 26-13. Massillon kept rolling along over the weekend as it took Mansfield in stride 56-6. Julius McCoy raced 76 yards for Farrell's winning touchdown against Beaver Falls Friday night.

Annual Junior Hi Grid Battle Saturday Night

Annual grid battle between George Washington and Benjamin Franklin Junior High Schools will be held at Taggart Stadium Saturday night.

Both teams will go into the game for the junior high championship of the city with perfect records. Washington has rolled over four opponents, while Franklin has copped three straight.

Only three players from each team that competed in last year's classic will be back for this year's battle. Franklin players that saw some action against Washington last year are Angelo Burelli, Harry Walker and Anthony Vanus. Washington players that participated in last year's game are Joe Lane, Lee Pears and Ed Kelley.

Center Paul Groves and half-back Lee Rictor will not be eligible for the game, it is announced by Washington Coach Clark McClelland.

Four Girls To Wrestle Here Thursday Night

ELLEN OLSEN

Only two more days remain until fans and fanettes who relish wrestling served by both male and female, will have that opportunity Thursday night, when a sensational exhibition is to be staged by June Byers and Ellen Olsen paired against Mars Bennett and Cora Combs, and also, because Kay Bell, a "stand-in" for Victor Mature, the movie idol, takes on Frederic Von Schalk, the huge German, and Billy Weidner tackles Jack Vansky.

It will be the first time that these "gals" have displayed their charms, plus their ability as the foursome who appeared here a month ago, and that tag match went over in a spectacular manner, and everyone who witnessed the three falls left The Arena, satiated with pleasure.

Von Schalk is not only one of the most huge men in grappledom, six feet, six inches in height and weight 250, but one of the best television stars in the country. Kay Bell, who is built like an Adonis, else he could not have been a replacement for Vic Mature in Sampson-Delilah movie, is also reportedly a good wrestler. Billy Weidner and Jack Vansky are rough, tough, cavort also on television and will put on a good match, it is believed.

Hurricanes Wind Up Home Season With Friday Tilt

New Castle high school Red Hurricanes will play their final 1950 contest before the home folks Friday night, when they entertain Erie Strong Vincent.

The Canes wind up their '50 schedule following the Vincent tilt with away games at Allequippa and Turtle Creek.

New Castle will be seeking its sixth consecutive victory of the season after dropping its first two games. Light drills were held on Monday for those boys that didn't see much action Friday night and didn't go with the JV's to Ellwood City.

The meeting between Strong Vincent and New Castle high schools will be the only second between the two schools. The first and only time they met was in 1947 with the Canes winning 14-0.

Only common foe of the two teams this year is Erie Academy. Academy dropped Vincent 20-12, while New Castle topped Academy 20-0. Ellwood City defeated the visitors 20-7 in the 1950 opener.

MAY SELL PHEASANTS

Having received reports that pheasants were being sold along the New Wilmington highway, Game Protector Cal Hooper investigated. He reported there is a licensed propagator along the road and under the law is allowed to do so.

Penn State's new football coach, Rip Engle, once played for Blue Ridge college at New Windsor, Md.

Louis Puzzles Sports World

New Statement Very Confusing

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 24.—(INS)—Joe Louis puzzled the sports world again today with the statement in Louisville that he is "not particularly interested in a return match" with Heavyweight Boxing Champion Ezzard Charles.

The ex-champ said yesterday his chief reason for his scheduled bout with Caesar Brion in Chicago is to prove to himself that he still can hold his own with the best of them.

Little Confusing
Louis said he could round up another fight with Charles if he can win three or four more bouts. But he added, "I may quit before I get another bout with Charles. If I can see that I'm back to where I think I can hold my own against the best of them, that may be enough."

The famed "Brown Bomber" stopped at Louisville en route to West Baden, Ind., where he is slated to train for his November 29 bout with Brion.

Phillies Sign Young Catcher
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—(INS)—The Phillies, living right up to their "Whiz Kid" tag, have acquired another catcher today, and he's all of 20 years old.
The back stop is Larry Hutnick, six-foot, 195-pounder, from Trinity college, where he is a junior. The Phils said he will report to one of the club's top minor league teams for spring training.
Five other major league clubs were bidding for the Hartford, Conn., collegian. Although he was signed for an undisclosed sum, the Phillies said it was not large enough to class him as a "bonus baby."

Amusement Tax Opposed By Theatre Managements

Louis Lutz, manager of both the Penn and Victor theatres, and spokesman for the Motion Picture Exhibitors of New Castle, in opposing the intention of city council to levy an amusement tax next year, said during council meeting in city hall Monday:

"I have been asked to speak briefly, by my fellow theatre men, on the subject of the story in the last Thursday issue of the New Castle News, regard to this body having under consideration an amusement tax.

"I speak for the Penn and Victor theatres. All the other theatres of New Castle, are represented by those about me. We in turn, represent a sizeable segment of the population of New Castle, but not all by any means.

In fact, the Gallup poll of a few years back, showed that the biggest groups of movie goers, percentage-wise, came from the upper teenagers, young married couples, moderate income groups. That as we grow older we tend to go to the movies less, being pre-occupied with politics and our gardens.

Tax Discriminatory
"We feel that a movie tax is discriminatory, singling out a single business, and also singling out a portion of the population, to whom a movie admission is frequently their principal source of amusement.

As regards the Penn and Victor theatres, the brothers by whom I am employed, have frequently of late, endeavored to induce me to increase admission prices, to offset rising costs of operation. Movie admissions for years have lagged behind the rise in costs of other services and commodities.

"I vigorously objected to a price increase, sincerely feeling that we would compound our problem, with lowering attendance. I feel that the effect the city tax would have on our attendance.

"We have in New Castle a payroll tax. Some cities in Pennsylvania have an amusement tax. I am given to understand that no other city has both.

The proposed tax is in effect a sales tax. We subscribe to the necessity of further taxes, to balance the budget. We ask only that our industry is not singled out for separate punitive legislation.

We respectfully petition the city council to pass on to us and our customers, only the same tax rates and consideration, as apply to all other services and businesses in New Castle.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS OF INVITATIONS

"What are the correct form used for sending acceptances and regrets to both formal and informal invitations—those to a wedding, dinner, dance, etc?"

Answer: The reply should be determined by the invitation itself. The formal invitation always requires a formal reply—one written in the third person, regardless of how well you know the one who issued it. Here is the correct form for all replies to formal invitations whether to a wedding, dinner or dance:

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Blake accept with pleasure Mr. and Mrs. John Smith's kind invitation for Saturday the second of December at eight o'clock

If you cannot attend, substitute for the second line in the above-mentioned form "regret that they are unable to accept." The day and hour should be repeated in an acceptance, but may be omitted in a "regret." The words "kind invitation for dinner" may be used in acknowledgment of a formal dinner invitation, if desired. Informal replies are written in the first person thus:

Dear Mary
Nothing could give me greater pleasure than dining with you and Jim on Thursday the third. I am looking forward to seeing you both, etc. etc.

Air Force Enlistees Receive 'New Blues'

U. S. air force enlistees now are receiving the new blue uniform when they report to the processing and indoctrination center at Lackland air force base at San Antonio, Tex., according to Cpl. Pete A. Colla of the local US army and US air force recruiting station.

The distinctive blue uniforms—replacing the former GI "suntans" and "O. D.'s"—officially were adopted by the air force more than a year ago, but were not available in quantity until recently.

Due to the rapid expansion of the air force, unlimited openings are available to qualified young men who desire to wear the new "blues", Cpl. Colla stated. Full details on air force enlistment requirements can be obtained at the recruiting office located in the Post Office building.
